Senate Sets Up Committee To Probe McCarthy's Case

Guatemala's Junta Orders Army Home

GUATEMALA (AP) — Guatemala's ruling military junta ordered President Carlos Castillo Armas' private army to disband and go home today, but the action generated rising public resentment. An American Embassy spokesman said there was a possibility of a popular uprising in the capital.

The junta ordered the disbanding of Castillo Armas' armed "liberation army," which sparked the overthrow of Communist-backed President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman, after regular army units and military academy cadets had battled the 700 irregulars sporadically for 12 hours yesterday with mortars and tanks.

Twelve Killed

Twelve persons were killed and 42 wounded in the battling around Roosevelt Hospital, where Castillo Armas' men were camped on the outskirts of the capital. The fighting, outgrowth of weeks of tension between the regular troops and the revolutionists, mushroomed from a dawn brawl between cadets and members of the President's force.

One report said the trouble started in a house of prostitution.

A cease-fire finally took effect at 6:35 p.m. and the 700 liberation army men surrendered their arms to regular army officers. The revolutionists were ordered to return to their homes throughout the country today.

The junta ordered a curfew into effect at 9 p.m. and warned that military patrols would take "drastic measures" against any violators.

Tension Still High

A spokesman for the American Embassy reported there still was "very great tension" late last night. The President's backers were disgruntled, the spokesman said, because the army had forced him to break up his insurgent army.

The American official said Communists apparently played no part in the violence. The Reds tried, however, to organize antigovernment demonstrations while the fighting was going on. Troops loyal to the junta smashed all the attempts.

Castillo, who rushed back to Guatemala from a visit to Chimaltenango, was believed still firmly in power. He maintained a complete silence yesterday.

The army announced the ceasefire, which was hurriedly negotiated by Roman Catholic Archbishop Mariano Rossell Arellano with the help of U.S. Ambassador John E. Peurifoy and others.

The government agreed to disarm and disband the liberation army and promised that the military cadets would not be punished for their part in the fighting. The regular army in turn guaranteed to place itself under complete government jurisdiction.

The agreement was signed for the government by Maj. Enrique

Ground Crews Vote To Strike Major Airlines

Walkout of 1,200 Pilots in 4th Day; Mediators at Work

By The Associated Press

A large segment of the nation's air transportation industry faced the threat of a spreading shutdown today.

A strike of some 1,200 American Airlines pilots went into its fourth day and 20,000 ground crew workers authorized a walkout against six other major airlines.

The new strike threat was directed against Capital, Eastern, National, Northwest, Trans World and United.

The National Mediation Board, moving swiftly to avert new walkouts, called in representatives of the AFL International Assn. of Machinists (IAM) and the six lines to meet in Washington today.

An IAM spokesman said there would be no strike on the six lines while the mediation board tries for a settlement.

The IAM is seeking a uniform wage on all airlines, asking a 5 per cent increase over present top classifications. This would give a mechanic, now paid $2.27 an hour, a rate of $2.38.

Meanwhile, Clarence N. Sayen, president of the striking AFL Air Line Pilots Assn., declined to comment on published reports that the pilots' strike may spread soon to United.

The strike against American is designed to force an eight-hour limit to a pilot's continuous flying time on nonstop transcontinental schedules.

The Reynolds Metals Co., beset by a strike of 2,500 workers and a threatened walkout of possibly 7,500 more, resumed contract talks with the CIO United Steelworkers in Washington.

A company spokesman said yesterday that a settlement "might not be far off."

The dispute is over vacation and weekend premium pay.

Ex-Tax Chief Gets 5-Year Prison Term

Joseph D. Nunan Jr. Also Fined $15,000 On Evasion Charges

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph D. Nunan Jr., once the nation's head tax collector, was sentenced today to five years imprisonment and a $15,000 fine for income tax evasion.

Nunan was sentenced by Judge Walter Bruchhausen who said that Nunan's conduct "cannot be condoned."

Named by Roosevelt

The judge said Nunan's crime was made greater by the fact that he had been charged with enforcing the laws.

Nunan was appointed U. S. commissioner of Internal Revenue by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and served in the post from 1944 to 1947.

He was convicted on a five-count indictment in which he was accused of reporting his income for 1946 to 1950 as $416,144 when it actually was $532,396. The government said he paid taxes totaling $200,437 when he should have paid $291,523.

Attorney To Appeal

Nunan's attorney, Richard J. Burke, said the verdict would be appealed. He asked that Nunan be permitted to remain free in the $1,500 bail previously posted. The judge took the motion under advisement.

Nunan made no comment as he was sentenced. His attorney had asked that his age of 57 be considered.

In sentencing Nunan, Judge Bruchhausen said he was not at this time concerned with the actual collection of tax that Nunan had failed to pay, but was interested only in giving adequate punishment" for Nunan's deeds.

25 Years Possible

The judge said that the fact that Nunan was well acquainted with the laws and tax collection rules only served to "emphasize his guilt."

Nunan could have received a maximum sentence of 25 years in prison and a $50,000 fine. The judge sentenced him to five years on each of the five counts, with the prison terms to run concurrently, and $3,000 fine on each of the five counts.

Appears Worried

Sheppard Refuses To Answer Police

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police fired a new series of questions at Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard today, but the osteopath continued to balk at discussing many details surrounding his wife's slaying.

Homicide detectives, beginning their fourth day of interrogation, said the 30-year-old prisoner appeared worried and apprehensive at times.

He refused flatly to view a picture taken of his wife, Marilyn, 31, shortly after she was found hacked to death in her bed July 4.

Detectives said Dr. Sheppard still insisted he was innocent and that his stock answer to many questions was, "On advice of counsel I can't talk about it."

His attorney, William Corrigan, noted criminal defense attorney, has repeatedly urged him not to talk to police.

A full report is expected later today on a physical examination given the physician.

Handcuffed and garbed in prison denim, the 30-year-old osteopath was taken last night to City Hospital, where his orthopedic neck brace was removed and the doctors examined him.

'Nothing Wrong'

Police Chief Frank W. Story said there "was nothing seriously wrong" with Sheppard, as determined by the examination. The chief said it did not include psychiatric tests.

The prisoner, whose attorney previously had barred a hospital check up, made no protest about the examination, Story said.

He added that Sheppard had complained of neck pains yesterday morning, and when jail officials asked for an examination, "we arranged to have it done by experts."

Called in by police were Dr. Spencer Braden, a Police Department neurosurgery consultant; Dr. Harry Slade, assistant neurosurgeon at City Hospital; Dr. Alvyn W. Tramer, acting chief of orthopedic service there; and Dr. George P. Greene, police surgeon.

Seek Clues

Meanwhile, strange-looking lights flickered at the sprawling suburban home where Sheppard's 31-year-old pregnant wife was found July 4 in her bed, hacked to death by 25 bone-deep blows.

Crime experts, using infrared and ultra-violet lights, picked through the lakefront house seek-

Lengthy New Investigation In Prospect

3 Democrats and 3 Republicans Will Be Selected for Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 75-12 vote of the Senate last night consigned to a special bipartisan committee a censure move aimed at Sen. McCarthy and evidently signaled a lengthy new investigation of the Wisconsin Republican's conduct.

Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP leader, predicted appointment by Vice President Nixon "within 48 hours" of a six-member inquiry committee charged with sifting nearly 50 overlapping charges against McCarthy, the Senate's controversial Red hunter.

Wants Immediate Probe

In the face of a setback in his efforts to force an immediate showdown on the censure issue, McCarthy called for "morning, afternoon and evening sessions" of the group to draft a speedy report.

"All I want is a vote by the Senate," he declared in an interview.

McCarthy dramatically told the Senate just before it voted last night that he wants his senatorial critics put under oath before the special committee to repeat their "scurrilous, false" charges.

If they do that, he said, they will "either indict themselves for perjury" or "prove what consummate liars they are."

Sent to Committee

The Senate's vote sent to the special committee a censure motion by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) — which Flanders punctuated by reading a list of 33 counts against McCarthy—plus six specific accusations against McCarthy by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark), seven somewhat similar charges by Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) and proposals for study of any charges in the Senates investigating rules.

Knowland said he expects the Senate Republican and Democratic Policy Committees to meet quickly to select the "fine, able men who have not become partisans in this matter" he said ought to comprise the inquiry group.

At the demand of Sen. Ives (R-NY), Knowland amended his motion to call for a progress report from the group before Congress adjourns, perhaps within two weeks. The majority leader said if the committee finds it can't complete its investigation by then, the Senate will have to decide whether

Dulles Charges Reds Violating Korean Truce

Not Serious Enough To Justify War, He Tells News Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today sharply accused the Communists of violating the Korean armistice. But he said that on balance the violations were not serious enough to justify resuming the war.

In a news conference, Dulles also disclosed that a new protest has been sent through Britain to Communist China over the loss of three American lives in the shooting down of a British airliner almost two weeks ago off Hainan Island.

To Protest Formosa

Dulles said, on another Far Eastern question, that United States warships and airplanes would protect Formosa against any enemy attack, but this government has not made any decision to enter into a formal alliance with the Chinese Nationalist government there.

As for southeast Asian defense arrangements, Dulles said he hoped decisions would be made in a week or 10 days on the time and place for holding a conference on conclusion of a defensive alliance.

Can't Go Into Detail

Dulles told questioning reporters he could not go into detail on the latest U. S. protest over the shooting down of the British airliner. But he said the main U. S. argument is that Red China is completely wrong in arguing that because the aircraft was British the the United States government does not have a claim to present on behalf of the damages suffered by its own citizens.

The Korean truce situation came in for detailed discussion. It has been dramatized in recent days by the visit here of South Korean President Syngman Rhee who has demanded an end to the neutral nations' supervisory commission which has kept representatives of Communist governments in South Korea.

The United States, Dulles said, would be sympathetic to seeing the commission wiped out.

Under Indian chairmanship its members are Sweden, Switzerland and two Communist governments —Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Tire Firm May Buy Into Motor Products Corp.

Discussions were reported under way today by stockholders of the Motor Products Corp. on an offer about to be made by the General Tire and Rubber Co. to acquire Motor Products stock.

The Wall Street Journal today reported General Tire plans to tender an offer which would allow it to acquire 300,000 shares of Motor Products common stock at a sum not to exceed $7,000,000.

Motor Products was reported to have 468,304 shares of common stock outstanding.

The Marion Industries plant at the west edge of Marion is one of the plants in the Motor Products system. The company announced a month ago plans to close the local plant due to lack of orders for automobile parts manufactured at the local plant. The plant, which employed more than 1,000 people, currently is tapering off production in preparing for the shutdown.

If Motor Products shareholders agreed to the sale of 300,000 shares for less than the $7 million offer, the sale would be mandatory, a

Dewey Short Faces Fight in Primary Today

Veteran Congressman Meets Stiff Opposition In Missouri Election

By The Associated Press

A veteran congressman's fight for his political life today stood out in listless primary elections in Michigan, Kansas, West Virginia and Missouri.

Rep. Dewey Short, Missouri Republican and chairman of the powerful House Armed Services Committee, faced a stiff challenge from State Sen. Noel Cox.

Drought Aid Boost

Short, a House member for 22 years, was seen getting a boost, however, from yesterday's White House decision to extend federal drought aid to some southwest Missouri counties.

Otherwise, there were no major contests on the day's slate and light balloting was forecast.

Candidates for the U.S. Senate will be named in Kansas, Michigan and West Virginia, but no incumbents faced serious threats. And only 17 of the 41 House members seeking renomination in the four states had primary opposition.

Election of candidates for governor were on in Michigan and Kansas.

Williams Unopposed

Senators Andrew F. Schoeppel (R-Kan) and Matthew Neely (D-WVa) did little campaigning against what they viewed as light opposition. Sen. Homer Ferguson of Michigan, chairman of the GOP Senate Policy Committee, was unopposed for renomination.

Ferguson's November opponent, Democrat Patrick V. McNamara, was left without opposition by the recent death of former Sen. Blair Moody. McNamara is a former Detroit city councilman.

Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams, seeking an unprecedented third term, also was unopposed. But four GOP candidates vied to oppose the Democratic governor in November.

Plane Crashes In Connecticut, No Lives Lost

Some in Hospitals After French Airliner With 37 Aboard Falls

PRESTON, Conn. (AP) — A four-engine Paris-to-New York Constellation with 37 persons aboard crashed and burst into flames on a rain-sodden farm today. First reports said that none was killed, but some were sped to nearby hospitals.

A witness reported the big Air France plane barely missed a house before landing in the field with a terrific crash. Almost immediately, flames enveloped the ship.

Air France reported in New York that the plane carried 29 passengers and a crew of eight. One of the passengers, state police said, was a baby.

Aaron Rosenstein, New York clothing manufacturer, was among the passengers who fled the flaming ship.

"The passengers were screaming and then there was a terrible crash," he said. "I saw many passengers leaving the wreckage."

He himself escaped with a scratched hand although he said he was the last to leave the plane.

The plane left Paris last night. It was due at Idlewild airport in New York at 8:15 a.m. EST, but rain and low ceiling prevented it from landing.

Marion Airman Missing After Boat Capsizes

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Obenour of 482 N. Greenwood St. were notified by telegram Monday that their son, Rex, stationed at Ladd Air Force Base near Fairbanks, Alaska, has been missing since Sunday when a boat in which he was riding capsized.

The telegram from the Air Force did not give any more details but added that a letter would follow. The young Marionite entered service in February of 1952 and was assigned to Alaska in November of 1953.

Bobo's Final Decree Awarded at Reno

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Bobo Rockefeller, 37, was awarded a divorce today from the millionaire, 42-year-old Winthrop Rockefeller.

The coal miner's daughter, who was the bride in two society weddings, received the decree on grounds of more than four years' separation from Rockefeller. The statutory limit in Nevada is only three years.

District Judge John Belford awarded the divorce in a closed hearing, customary in Nevada.

The blonde divorcee charged she and Rockefeller separated on Oct. 29, 1949.

She received 5½ million dollars in settlements and custody of their small son, Winthrop Paul.

The divorce hearing took only 15 minutes. Mrs. Rockefeller's big array of legal talent entered the courtroom by a private entrance. There was a large crowd of young women in front of the building.

Ex-Secretary Of War Blasts Gen. Marshall

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Secretary of War Harry H. Woodring says he once "thought very highly" of Gen. George C. Marshall "but I lost faith in him."

Woodring had a hand in having Marshall named Army chief of staff in World War II, but a letter made public yesterday by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) quoted the former Democratic secretary as saying six weeks ago that Marshall "would sell out his grandmother for personal advantage."

Declines Comment

Marshall, reached at his home in Leesburg, Va., declined comment.

McCarthy offered the letter, dated last June 23, for the Congressional Record during Senate debate on a move by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) to censure him.

Some of McCarthy's critics had cited as a reason for censure the Wisconsin senator's 1951 speech saying Marshall was "steeped in falsehood."

Critical of Colleagues

Woodring confirmed in Topeka, Kan., that he had written a letter to Robert M. Harris of New York City to thank him for a book about McCarthy. He told newsmen he had lost faith in Marshall because he thought the general "sold out" Chiang Kai-shek on a postwar peace mission to China for former President Truman.

Woodring was secretary of war in 1936-40, but was critical of many of his colleagues in the Franklin D. Roosevelt Cabinet after that.

Children Can Earn Any Amount

Tax Rules for Dependents Liberalized

By CHARLES F. BARRETT

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you support a child in college who works part time. . . .

If you support someone in your home who is not a close relative. . .

Second of a Series

If you share with several others in supporting a relative. . .

Then you probably will get a tax cut under the new, 1,000-page tax revision bill just passed by Congress.

The new measure sets out several more liberal rules for claiming dependents on your income tax returns. Each dependent entitled you to exempt $600 of your income from taxes. Each exemption thus means an actual tax cut of $120 if you're in the minimum 20 per cent tax bracket, more in the higher brackets.

Altogether, experts figure about 1,400,000 taxpayers will be able to claim additional dependents because of the new law. The changes, effective this year, will show up in 1954 tax returns, due next April.

UNDER THE OLD LAW you couldn't claim anyone as a dependent who made more than $600 income on his own during the year.

Under the new law, you can count children under 19 as dependents, regardless of their earnings, if you provide more than half their support.

And you can count children above 19 as dependents, regardless of their earnings, if they are in college. You still, of course, must provide more than half their support.

These provisions are designed to help many parents whose children work part time. Under the old law, it was a temptation for dad to tell his boy to quit work as the boy's earnings approached $600 and dad faced the loss of a dependent on his tax return.

THE TAX WRITERS particularly had in mind the parent who supports a child in college, at considerable extra expense, but who lost the child as a dependent because the child helped work his way through school.

Another new provision says this 1. determining whether you provide half your child's support, you don't have to count as part of his income any scholarships he receives in college.

Full time on-the-farm training, if supervised by an educational institution or local government, can be counted as attending college.

Under the old law, you could not count anyone as a dependent who was not a close relative. Now you can count anyone as a dependent if he lives in your household and you provide more than half his support.

THIS IS DESIGNED especially to apply to foster children, children in your home awaiting formal adoption, or others you support for any reason.

In many cases, a group of persons will share in the support of

Galion School Board Employs 4 Teachers, Studies Applicants

GALION — Four teachers were employed during a short business session of the Galion Board of Education Monday night, prior to private interviews of candidates for the city superintendency.

The board met in the office of the superintendent of schools and went into an executive session following the business period. All members of the board were present, with Grant West presiding. Supt. Marion E. Shank met with the board during the hiring of the teachers. His resignation as superintendent of schools is effective Sept. 1.

The resignation of Miss Grace DeWitt was accepted by the board. Miss DeWitt taught Latin in the junior and senior high schools since 1943 and also served as librarian at the junior high. She plans to return to her home town, Wayne, O.

Mrs. Ralph Deems of Galion was employed to teach Latin and English. The assignment of Mrs. Deems was temporary, upon her request, until another teacher can be secured. Mrs. Deems, a resident of Galion for the past seven years, is a graduate of Ohio State University. She has served as substitute teacher of Latin in the Galion schools.

The board also employed Lawrence Daly of Marion to teach social studies in the senior high school. He has had two years of military service and two years of teaching experience in Marion. He was graduated from Harding High School and received a B. S. degree in education from Bowling Green State University, with graduate work at Ohio State University.

Lawrence Paul Schreck, a Galion boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Schreck, was hired as an elementary teacher. He was graduated from Galion High School, has had two years of military service and two years of teaching at Hartland School, Collins, O. He received his B. S. degree in education from Ashland College.

The fourth teacher to be employed by the board was Lillian Hurlow of Galion who has had five years of teaching experience at Mount Ephraim and Iberia schools. She will be assigned to an elementary grade position.

Vacancies in the Galion public school system, in addition to that of the superintendency, are three elementary teaching positions, one librarian and an art teacher for junior and senior high schools.

Pickets Placed At Road Project Near Delaware

Officials of the Marion Labor Union Local No. 574 declined comment today on a report that Marion union men are picketing on a four-lane U. S. Route 23 highway construction project near Delaware.

The picketing, according to Delaware County Sheriff Earl Fravel, started Monday morning at the highway construction site, south of Delaware, where grading is in progress, and at the Olentangy River bride in Stratford.

R. K. McNamara, sub-conrtactor for a portion of the highway work, said the picketing was started in an effort to unionize common labor on the Route 23 project. McNamara said he asked the Delaware County sheriff to warn the picketers against standing close to road machinery.

The Delaware sheriff was informed that the picketing was going on by foremen of the H. W. Ringwald and Sons Co. of Chillicothe, contractors for the road improvement. The report was accompanied by a request that the sheriff halt the picketing.

Sheriff Fravel was scheduled to view the project today. He said future action regarding the picketing would depend upon the conditions he finds.

VFW Stages Giant Parade In Philadelphia

Vice President Nixon Speaks at Convention, Says U.S. Can't Relax

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some 75,000 Veterans of Foreign Wars members and auxiliaries lined up for a giant seven hour parade today highlighting their week-long annual encampment here.

But as marchers from all 48 states and beyond paraded and cut capers with fun-making units, they bore in mind a message from Vice President Richard M. Nixon that the free world cannot stop communism unless the people have the "will to resist."

'Indochina Is Proof'

Indochina is visible proof of this, the vice president told a banquet of top VFW leaders and other dignitaries last night.

"We saw this principle in reverse in Guatemala where the Communist army was 10 times as strong as the army of liberation," Nixon said.

"Ninety per cent of the people, however, were against the Communist government and it was only a matter of hours after the revolt against the government began before the Communist leaders had to run for their lives."

Nixon flew here from Washington to receive the VFW's Bernard M. Baruch Distinguished Service Award. The award is made for the "most outstanding contribution to the American way of life, promotion of unity and world peace."

Earlier, the convention approved amid cheering a strongly-worded "proclamation of policy" charging the federal government with "cynical disregard" for veterans and their dependents "while dealing generously with foreign nations, including former enemies."

The attack cited the record of the past 14 years, during which time, it said, 86 billion dollars had gone for foreign aid, while expenditures for veterans have totaled only 32 billions over 175 years.

Declines Comment

Nixon, pressed by newsmen, said he could not comment on the action since he had not had time to read the text.

Nixon arrived at the banquet in a Pennsylvania National Guard Armory more than an hour late due to the press of Senate affairs.

During that time some of the 1,500 persons in the hall abandoned their wait and returned to mid-city Philadelphia where shenanigans of the Cooties, VFW fun-making organization, were carried on.

There was dancing in the streets literally as hundreds of delegates and their ladies left their hotel rooms for a parade and celebration.

In business affairs of the day, Ray Burke, Yonkers, N.Y., won election as supreme commander of the Military Order of the Cootie. He defeated Clarence Kamp, Tulsa, Okla., to succeed William Wark, Ridgefield, N.J., in the post.

Marion Firms Bid On Contracts for New Hardin Home

KENTON—Bid for construction contracts for the new Hardin County Home and Hospital were opened Saturday in the commissioners rooms by Hardin County Auditor Rex Wilson, secretary of the county home building commission. It took nearly two hours to read all the bids.

The building commission was scheduled to meet today with the home architect, W. Howard Manor of Bellefontaine, to discuss the bids. The bids will then be studied and contracts probably let within a week.

Low bidder without adding any alternates to the general contract was the Baldauf Construction Co. of Marion with a base bid of $319,268.

Among bidders for the electrical contract were the Triple Service Co. of Marion, and the Kelly Electric Co. of Marion. Carl's Plumbing and Heating of Marion was one of the plumbing and heating contract bidders.

Objectives

By George Sokolsky

Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, Democratic leader of the Senate, in supporting Sen. William Knowland, Republican leader, raised the very serious question of the legitimate objectives of the United States. These have never been clearly defined in terms understandable to the American people.

SOKOLSKY

What are we after? What do we want? When we ask a European power to be our ally, what program do we present to that nation?

Sen. Johnson said:

"We shall soon have before us a 3½ billion dollar foreign aid bill. It is no secret that many people have very serious reservations about this measure. They want to know the extent to which this aid will actually support the legitimate objectives of the U. S., and the extent to which it will maintain policies which no longer have vitality.

"Certainly, before the measure finally clears the Senate there will be a definite insistence upon assurances that some of the nations to which aid will go will have to put their own houses in order."

FURTHER. Sen. Johnson said:

"There are certain factors which must be taken into consideration.

"First, the American people want no appeasement of the Communists."

"Second, the American people will refuse to support the United Nations if Communist China becomes a member.

"Third, the American people have become very uneasy over the intentions and objectives of our allies."

While these statements are important, they do not state the legitimate objectives of the United States.

They tell us what we ought to do if we are again defeated at the diplomatic table, but unless our national program is clear and understandable, we are bound to be defeated again as we have been at every conference since Teheran in 1943 and Yalta in 1945.

Sen. Wayne Morse made this point in reply to Sen. Johnson:

"We do not like to have it said about us, but the fact remains that throughout Asia today we are feared. We do not like to have it said about us, but the fact remains that in many allied countries there is a mounting opinion that what the United States will insist upon is that either its way be followed or the world will be involved in war. That is a wrong opinion of our country."

THE TRUTH IS not quite as Sen. Morse said it. We are feared in Asia because we have been defeated in Asia.

For an Asiatic, it is impossible to believe that so great and mighty a country as the United States will accept defeat in Korea and Indochina without taking some steps to defend its dignity and protect its prestige. Therefore, Asia, particularly India, expects that the United States will stage a comeback in Asia and as Nehru has stated in his welcome to Chou En-lai, India wants peace—peace at any price.

As for the European countries that have gone neutralist, Sen. Morse again does not appear to understand the psychological and moral effect of our defeat in Korea. Every country in Europe was forced to revise its position after that defeat; it was forced to wonder whether it was safe to be allied to the United States.

What Senators Knowland and Johnson propose is that we negotiate from strength; what Sen. Morse proposes is that we seek a common denominator with our allies and negotiate from that weakened position.

INCIDENTALLY, these three speeches, Knowland's, Johnson's, and Morse's, are among the best made on the subject of Asia during this session and indicate a better understanding of the present situation than has been usual in the Senate.

While Morse differs from Knowland and Johnson in many respects, he agrees with them to this extent:

"I do not want Red China recognized by the United Nations I want our delegation to vote against the recognition of Red China. I shall never vote on the floor of the Senate to recognize Red China. . ."

The effect of Sen. Johnson's speech was of the greatest significance. It established unanimity on this: The American people will not support the admission of Red China into the United Nations and that it is possible, even probable, that should Red China, by some parliamentary trick, be admitted, Congress might vote the United States out of the United Nations.

Red Paradise

By Victor Riesel

EAST BERLIN

So I almost get myself bayoneted by a bored and beardless Russian soldier who could not have been more than 18, but who took a dim view of my movie camera being aimed at the other side of a check post near the road to Potsdam. But here I sit scribbling at a sidewalk cafe on Stalin-Allee, unmolested, watching the Soviet world of human robots about me.

RIESEL

This is George Orwell's world—"1986" come true. If you and your womenfolk lived in this world of the automaton, here is how you'd live in the workers' paradise.

First, you could not escape the loud speakers. I am some distance from the Marx-Engels Platz — the Soviets' Union Square — but I hear the speeches of an anti-U.S.A. demonstration over in the Platz.

The voices, with a Hitler raucousness, blare through a hundred loud speakers lining Stalin Allee like lamposts which stand 10 feet high along the big streets.

You could not gather with your fellow workers to talk politics, art or anything else — or to gripe. There are only three or four street cafes in Eastern Berlin, here along Stalin Allee. But you are surrounded by Communist party hacks, the activists, the speed-up workers' champs like that Amazon, Frieda Hockauf, who never leaves her machine.

THERE ARE ALSO the "Reconstruction Workers", the men and women who spend their leisure hours picking bricks and rubble from the huge mounds left by the bombing and artillery.

You can't talk in their presence. They'd turn you in. For this they have been rewarded with apartments on this beautiful boulevard.

There are 25,000 apartments on this imposing avenue, which hides the devastated side streets. For a three-room apartment — each the same as the others — including telephone, central heat and garbage disposal, you'd pay 67 marks, 90 pfennigs a month — about $17. That's the bribe for selling out civilization. The Red lady in charge is proud of the housing. Too much uniformity? Well, we take care of that in the next five-year plan — then we have individuality!

So you can't talk. And you can't gather in your house because the commie block informer would turn you in. So you turn in early at night. Once you get to work the next day, you enter your plant, such as the Stalin Electric Works, or your shop through gates and doors marked with propaganda slogans. You'd better mouth them aloud to your fellow workers. There are always ears — and eyes.

If you walk the courtyard or the streets in front of your building, you walk under constant surveillance of police in a watchtower, equipped with powerful spotlights for early winter nights!

IN FOUR HOURS of driving and roaming the Soviet sector for the second time in a week, I counted 235 signs blasting the U. S. and the European Defense Community.

Naturally, virtually every sign, some actually four stories high in mural form has the word "freedom" in it.

Since you're earning about 10 cents an hour, you must buy at the State's HO Stores, or the KONSUM. You'll eat limited types of food, as do all your neighbors. And very little fresh food or milk for your kids.

Well, maybe you've saved enough for your wife to buy some clothes. She had better first have a pair of overalls in her wardrobe, if she wants to be a "progressive" dresser. The overalls are for the hours of rubble-picking. She doesn't dare buy a hat. She's been told that's "reactionary." But she does have her choice of a "Stalin" model drape or a "Stalin" model drape. She, like thousands of others, wears a uniform party dress.

So you both are dressed and you've cleared enough rubble for the week to get your Red stars. You try for a movie. The last U.S. film, "Moulin Rouge" was shown here a year ago.

But you CAN see documentaries —Red China being reconstructed or the People's Democracies in action on the farm front. You try the live theater. Perhaps, a play like "Tom Sawyer," which was on some time ago. You recall that a crooked doctor is killed by an accomplice in crime. But not in East Berlin. Here the doctor is killed by the Ku Klux Klan because he dared hire a negro.

SO YOU TRY staying home. The official Soviet newspaper and the official party and official labor press are uniform. The radio is worse.

You CAN put on some good Czech long - playing records, so long as you have on hand a platter called "Jackie (GI Jackie, I presume) Go Home" to prove your patriotism. How long can you play records?

You go for a walk down to the Alexander Platz for the one bit of easy food and amusement — and guess what? There is a brand new automat. So you put in your coin. The food comes out and you don't have to worry about comrade waiter being a stool-pigeon.

And you go home to get to bed early, so you can rise and break your back again for the Socialist paradise.

Indian Problem

By Hal Boyle

PINE RIDGE, S. D.

The vanishing Redskin is no longer vanishing. But lo, the poor Indian, is still have a tough time.

"Our population is increasing about 3 per cent a year," said Ben Reifel, superintendent of the Pine Ridge Reservation, the second most populous in America.

HAL BOYLE

But a rising birth rate has only accelerated the Indian's task of surviving a white man's world.

Reifel, a former Army officer and Harvard graduate, is the son of a full-blooded Sioux mother and a German-American father. He feels the only possible solution of "the Indian problem" is education.

"There is no other answer," he said crisply. "The Indian simply must adjust."

HE ESTIMATES that of the 30,000 Indians in South Dakota (there are 150,000 in the entire country) only 15,000 are integrated in the pattern of our civilization.

Some 11,111 Ogalala Sioux now crowd the reservation, and they are selling off their acres to white ranchers at a rate that in 12 to 15 years will leave them completely landless.

"There are 1,700 families on the reservation now, and it will support only 600 families," said Reifel. "Only 200 families are gainfully employed full time. The rest have to be subsidized one way or another.

"As the superintendent sees it, the biggest trouble in upgrading the Indian economically is his failure to put the same value on time and thrift as his white neighbors do.

"With the Sioux," he said, "right now is important, not tomorrow. Time has no economic concern to them, and they have no interest in saving.

"This is because in the old days the buffalo provided them with everything—food, shelter, clothing and bone utensils. They had no way of storing food, and since they followed the buffalo they had no reason for building up material possessions.

"They lived each day as it came, but they can never become assimilated in our cultures until they develop a consciousness of time."

ANOTHER DIFFICULTY in uplifting the Indian's standards lies in the fact that women of marriageable age far outnumber the men on the reservation.

"This is tremendously important," said Reifel, who wishes the situation could be reversed," because ordinarily women raise the moral level in any civilization."

Because of the shortage of husbands, about 25 per cent of the children born on the reservation are illegitimate. No stigma is attached to them among the tribe, but the high rate of illegitimacy adds to the problem of creating stable family patterns.

While most Indians agree with Reifel that education and acceptance of the white man's goals in life are the only way they can hope to lift themselves from abysmal poverty, many feel the federal government has not done enough to help them.

"Long before Columbus came, the Indian was a soaring golden eagle," one elderly tribesman said.

"But the white man envied the golden eagle his freedom and coaxed him down from the clouds and trapped him. He told the Indian that a golden eagle was nice, but he would be better off if he were a great white eagle.

"The white man said he would help the Indian become a white eagle, and started pulling out his tail feathers and his wing feathers, but when he pulled out a golden feather he didn't replace it with a white feather.

"Now the white man has tired of his game and says, you are a white eagle—why don't you fly? But the Indian is no longer an eagle at all. He has no feathers left, and he can't get off the ground."

Two Fishermen Drown In Muskingum River

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Two young fishermen drowned early today when their plywood rowboat tipped over in the Muskingum River six miles south of here. A third swam about 75 feet to safety.

Sheriff David Weissert said George Tharp Jr. 26, of Roseville and William McGilton, 19, of Cannelville drowned in more than 15 feet of water. William Ridenour, 20, of Somerset made it to shore and notified authorities who recovered his companions' bodies.

Ridenour said the boat, apparently made topheavy by a motor attached to its back, tipped when Tharp leaned out the front end to place a trotline in the water.

Village Police Chief Admits Shooting Man

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP)—Jeffersonville Police Chief William M. Holford, 57, pleaded guilty today to charges of shooting with intent to kill and was held in the Fayette County jail under $10,000 bond.

The charges were filed by Paul Rittenhouse, 40, of Jeffersonville after the shooting late yesterday.

Sheriff Orland Hays said Holford, when arraigned in court today, warned Rittenhouse:

"I'll get you yet for breaking up my home."

Hays said Holford spotted Rittenhouse's car yesterday containing Holford's wife and another passenger west of Jeffersonville. The sheriff said Holford trailed the car into Jeffersonville stopped it, broke a window in it with his blackjack and then fired three times at Rittenhouse, who had jumped from the machine.

Sheriff Hays said Rittenhouse then disarmed Holford who was later arrested by one of Hay's deputies. Rittenhouse suffered a powder burn on one hand.

Jeffersonville Mayor Russell Mitchell today stripped Chief Holford of his badge and police credentials. No successor was appointed immediately.

Two 7-Year-Old Children Hurt In City Traffic

Both Suffer Slight Injuries; Local Woman Shaken Up in Mishap

Two small children were slightly injured when they ran into the street and were hit by cars Monday afternoon. They were two of three injuries reported in four accidents on city streets in the past 24 hours. State patrolmen from the Marion post and Sheriff's deputies reported no accidents on county roads and highways in the past 24 hours.

Larry E. Zinn, 7, of 190 Elk Ave. suffered an injured right arm, when he ran into the rear end of a car driven by Weldon M. Kerr, 70, of 987 N. State St. at 1:41 p.m.

Police reports indicate Kerr was southbound and the boy ran into the rear of his car while running from a dog. He was taken to Dr. J. F. Smyth for treatment.

Darlene Ralston, 7, of Caledonia was taken to Marion City Hospital for a checkup after she ran into the side of a car at 764 Bellefontaine Ave. at 3:35 p.m.

Driver of the car was George W. Snyder, 27, of near Edison. He was travelling east and the girl ran from the north curb into his car. Although she suffered no apparent injuries, she was taken to the hospital for examination.

Mrs. Clara L. Smith of near Marion was taken to Dr. Floyd Yeager after she was shaken up when a truck hit the rear of her car at the corner of Mt. Vernon Ave. and S. Greenwood St. Police reports show Mrs. Smith was stopped at the corner when the truck, driven by Neil E. Turner, 21, of 195 Reed Ave. struck the rear of her car.

A car driven by Beaumont F. Bilger, 60, of 183 Fies Ave. was damaged when struck by a hit-skip motorist on W. Center St. at the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks.

Bilger told police the other car pulled out of the train depot yard, struck his car on the left side, and left the scene.

Sheppard

ing blood stains and other clues.

Sheppard has told police he was injured and knocked out twice in fights with his wife's murderer. Since then he has frequently worn a white leather and metal orthopedic collar.

His attorney, William J. Corrigan, has filed notice in Appellate Court that he will appeal Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Merrick's decision denying a writ of habeas corpus.

Corrigan contended Sheppard had been "illegally arrested" on a warrant signed by Bay Village Council President Gershom M. M. Barber. But the judge held Barber acted lawfully in signing the warrant in the absence of Mayor J. Spencer Houk, who disqualified himself as a possible witness in the case.

In the meantime, Miss Susan Hayes, who told police she once was intimate with Sheppard, slipped past reporters out of her air-conditioned Hotel Carter suite for a visit with her parents.

The 24-year-old brunette, once a medical technician at the Bay View Hospital where Sheppard practiced, came here from Downey, Calif., at the request of Cleveland police. She has been staying at the hotel, accompanied by two policewomen.

350 Attend Marion County 4-H Picnic

APPROXIMATELY 350 adults and youngsters attended the annual Marion County 4-H Club picnic last night at Holiday Hill in Delaware County.

UPPER: A group of local residents finish up a square dance number with the promenade. Square dancing, polkas and schottisches featured the evening's entertainment.

A guest at the picnic was Marjatta Lyytikainen, Finish farm girl who is staying in Marion County for three weeks in the International Farm Youth Exchange program. Miss Lyytikainen was introduced by Rosemary Mautz, her hostess for her stay in the county.

Ellwood Parrott of the county extension service was master of ceremonies. Also on the program was Al Gehres, assistant state 4-H club leader.

Primaries

Rated as having about even chances were State Treasurer D. Hale Brake. Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary and Donald S. Leonard, former state and Detroit police commissioner. The fourth candidate, former Lt. Gov. Eugene Keyes, was given little chance.

In Kansas, Gov. Edward Arn's Republican administration supported George Templar, former U.S. district attorney, over Lt. Gov. Fred Hall in the GOP gubernatorial race. An apparently evenly matched Democratic contest pitted Wichita Mayor William C. Salome against George Docking, Lawrence banker.

Two West Virginia Republicans contested for the chance to face Sen. Neely in November. They are Thomas B. Sweeney of Wheeling and Latelle M. LaFollette of Charleston.

The Foreign Office denied rumors that the uprising had been instigated from the Mexican Embassy. Arbenz and more than 300 of the government's leftist and Communist opponents are crammed into the Mexican compound.

Hostility had increased between regular soldiers and Castillo's motley but well-armed band since it moved into the capital last month and set up camp on the outskirts. The junta-President apparently had held his force together as a counter against any move against him from factions within the regular army, there also has been considerable grumbling from supporters of Castillo Armas who felt his followers' role in the overthrow of Arbenz had not been recognized sufficiently.

The offer has not as yet been approved by the Motor Products board of directors in Detroit.

Policy Announced

Federal Drought Relief Less Liberal This Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal aid being offered farmers in drought-plagued areas is less liberal this year than last.

Under an assistance program announced yesterday by Secretary of Agriculture Benson, eligible farmers may buy corn, oats, barley and grain sorghums at cut-rate prices. This grain will be used to help them maintain foundation herds of livestock.

Corn, Wheat Last Year

Corn and wheat were offered for such a purpose last year, but at somewhat lower prices than those announced for the current drought emergency.

Under the new program, eligible farmers will be able to buy the designated livestock feed grains through their regular feed dealers at prices 60 cents per 100 pounds below current market levels.

That means a government subsidy of about 34 cents a bushel for corn. At current average farm prices, corn would cost the farmer about $1.16 a bushel. Last year, corn was offered at $1 a bushel.

Under last year's program, wheat was offered at $1.10 a bushel. But wheat is not being subsidized for drought use this year. The emergency drought relief prices this year would average, at least price quotations, about 48 cents a bushel for oats, about 71 cents a bushel for barley and about $1.60 per 100 pounds for grain sorghums. A limited quantity of oats was sold for drought use last year at 50 cents a bushel.

Excessive Cost Cited

Department officials said consideration had been given to proposals that the government offer the grains at lower prices than those finally decided upon. These were turned down in the belief that the cost to the government might be excessive, they said.

Farmers declared eligible for the low-cost grains will get supplies indirectly from government surplus stocks. They will buy from grain dealers who in turn will get supplies from the government.

a dependent relative—as an elderly parent—but no one member of the group provides more than half the dependent's support. Under the old law no one could claim the dependent on tax returns.

Under the new law, the group can agree that one person will claim the dependent in any one year. The benefit can be rotated among the group in succeeding years.

The member of the group who claims the dependent must contribute at least 10 per cent of the dependent's support. And he must be a close relative of the dependent—non-relatives can't be claimed as dependents under the group provision.

The law defines a close relative as a son or daughter or grandchild, a stepson or stepdaughter, a brother, sister or stepbrother or stepsister, a father or mother or grandparent, a stepfather or stepmother, a niece, nephew, aunt or uncle, or any of these in-laws: son, daughter, father, mother, brother or sister.

Dulles said the situation respecting the armistice supervision is this:

In the north the Communist high command, under the armistice terms, is supposed to let members of the armistice commission—meaning the Swiss and Swedes who are important to the U. N. command—see what goes on at ports of entry designated in the agreement.

However they have circumvented the armistice agreement by moving materials through routes which use other ports of entry into Korea and they deny the Swiss and Swedes opportunity to visit such points.

Gas Line Springs Leak

A leak in the gas line in front of the Palace Theater last night sent Ohio Fuel Gas Co. service men to work for about six hours to make repairs.

A gas company spokesman said this morning the leak was caused by rusted pipes on W. Center St. He said temporary repairs were made last night, and the line would be replaced today.

Haymes Again Ordered Sent Out of Country

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Singer Dick Haymes, husband of actress Rita Hayworth, again has been ordered deported following a rehearing of his case.

Ralph Farb, special inquiry officer for the Immigration and Naturalization Service, upheld yesterday the deportation order issued last March 23 after Haymes' first hearing.

The rehearing was ordered after Haymes appealed to the Board of Immigration Appeals in Washington, D.C., contending he had been the victim of entrapment when he went to Hawaii in June last year to visit Miss Hayworth.

Haymes had supported his appeal with an affidavit from Richard R. Cody, former Immigration Service employe here. Cody's affidavit said immigration officials had instructed him not to warn Haymes he would be ineligible to re-enter the mainland, once he left, unless he had a special permit.

Farb ruled there was no evidence substantiating Cody's claim and cleared Herman R. Landon, district immigration officer here, of Haymes' entrapment charge. Farb gave the singer 10 days to appeal again to the Washington board, and Haymes' counsel said they would do so immediately.

The government's case against Haymes is based upon the singer's registration as a neutral alien during World War II, thus avoiding military service as a citizen of Argentina. Counsel for the government contended that, having claimed neutral status, Haymes forfeited eligibility for American citizenship.

Attorneys for Haymes maintained that it is Immigration Service practice to warn aliens that they need a special permit to re-enter this country, should they leave it.

David Marcus, Haymes' attorney here, said Farb's order is directly contrary to Cody's affidavit.

Singer Sewing Shop Transfers To New Center

The Singer Sewing Center Monday became the first store to be open for business at the new shopping center on W. Center St. on the site of the former Central Junior High School.

The Sewing Center, located at 254 W. Center St., features more floor space than the former location on E. Center St., James English, manager reported. The sewing room and offices are all on the ground floor, with storage space available in the basement.

In addition to the front window, the Center also has a window in the back of the store looking out on the proposed parking area for shopping center customers. The store will be air-conditioned, English said.

Eventual War Predicted by Syngman Rhee

NEW YORK (AP)—Throughout a day and night crowded with honors, South Korean President Syngman Rhee repeated dark prophecies of an inevitable showdown between the free world and the Communists.

Standing in a drizzling rain before City Hall yesterday, after a ticker-tape parade and praise by city officials for a lifetime dedicated to freedom, he sounded the day's first warning of open conflict.

"War must come soon and it is necessary that the United States, the champion of the free nations of the world, be saved from a terrible catastrophe," he declared. "The later it comes the more terrible it will be."

Again at Columbia University, where he received an honorary doctor of laws degree, he warned:

"We are still engaged in a losing battle with the Communists. . . . If we continue as we are now, we are fighting a losing battle. . . . Don't back down. To retreat, to back down, means disaster."

In the evening at a dinner in his honor attended by 1,500 people, he renewed the plea he made to Congress last week for American backing in an attack against the Communists in Asia.

To take the offensive now, he said, would give the free world a chance to "stop the Communists and actually push them back. . . . Such a triumph is desperately needed for the cause of free mankind."

Marshall

He opposed third and fourth terms for Roosevelt.

McCarthy said he had obtained the letter from another senator who got it from Harris, and that Woodring had no objection to its publication.

As made public by McCarthy, the letter dealt largely with the hearings into McCarthy's row with Secretary of the Army Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams.

WELL DOG-GONE, LOOKIT HERE. Girl, a 2-year-old boxer, gets her bath in an unaccustomed manner as she sits calmly in flood in Houston, Tex. Heavy rains for more than 24 hours overflowed the bayous, caused thousands of dollars of damage to homes.

McCarthy

it wants to stay on in Washington to await a final report while House members go home.

Early Report Unlikely

Fulbright said he thinks the chances are "very remote" that there will be any final report before the next Congress meets in January.

He said he doubts three Democrats and three Republicans will ever agree on McCarthy, and added that the committee could die automatically with the expiration of the present Congress.

Forty Republicans, 34 Democrats and Sen. Morse voted for Knowland's proposal to set up the special committee, thus breaking through the tangle that had kept the Senate in boiling argument since Friday.

Three Republicans—Sen. Cooper (Ky), Duff (Pa), and Flanders—voted against the resolution, as did nine Democrats—Sens. Fulbright, Chavez (NM), Douglas (Ill), Hennings (Mo), Hill (Ala), Humphrey (Minn), Lehman (NY), Magnuson (Wash) and Monroney (Okla).

These 12 generally argued that the Senate should vote on the question of censuring McCarthy without any further inquiry.

McCarthy, it was learned, canvassed the possibility of trying to kill Knowland's proposal but abandoned the idea. That would have cleared the way for a vote on Flanders' censure resolution, which most senators regarded as doomed.

While McCarthy himself voted "present" on the rollcall, his supporters joined in the move to set up a new investigation which seems likely to keep him busy for some time answering questions about his conduct of investigations, his personal finances and his attacks on other senators, government officials and former officials.

Pleased with Decision

McCarthy professed to be pleased with the Senate decision, declaring: "I'm very happy. This is good."

Contending "it is imperative we have a vote before we go home," McCarthy added:

"This will give me a chance to get these fellows under oath who have been making charges year after year. I sincerely hope they give me the right to cross-examine."

He said he didn't see why it would be necessary to hear more than about eight witnesses, himself and seven senators who have assailed him. He named these as Fulbright, Lehman, Hennings, Monroney, Flanders, Cooper and Morse.

Of the senators he named, all except Cooper and Fulbright said they would be glad to testify under oath.

'Donnybrook' Foreseen

Fulbright said that there is "no limit" to the number of witnesses McCarthy may seek to call. Hennings predicted a "donnybrook." Monroney said the Senate wasn't doing right to hand the issue to a committee "in the hope that it will go away."

Maurice Rosenblatt, campaign director for the National Committee for an Effective Congress—which Flander acknowledged authored the 33 counts he read against McCarthy—said in a statement that "unless the special committee is very carefully selected it will end up either thoroughly intimidated or completely whitewashing McCarthy." The committee describes itself as a group working for the election to Congress of "liberal" members of both major parties.

Flanders' charges included such accusations as that McCarthy permitted his investigations subcommittee staff to conduct itself in an "insolent manner."

McCarthy challenged Flanders' charge that a member of the Investigations subcommittee staff had investigated Sen. Jackson (D-Wash), one of the senators who took part in the McCarthy-Army hearings.

McCarthy said he had "no information in any way, shape or form that would indicate even remotely there could be any investigation of Sen. Jackson."

When Flanders acknowleged he got his information about the incident from a newspaper account, Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) said the Vermonter was indulging in "the very same things of which you accuse the junior senator from Wisconsin." He added, "I'm amazed."

"So am I," said Flanders, and as gallery spectators roared, he added, "I am amazed that a senator with the experience of the senator from Indiana would pay no attention to what is in the newspapers."

Capehart told Flanders: "You insult the intelligence of senators by getting up here with such tripe."

Note 2 Changes

McCarthy took note of two other charges that have been cited against him.

Fulbright and Morse have called for censure of McCarthy because he received $10,000 from Lustron Corp. for a pamphlet on housing at a time when the now-defunct firm was depending on the government for capital.

McCarthy said he had written a "complete, thorough" explanation of a new veterans' housing law and made a deal with Lustron to get 10 cents a copy for the first 100,000 copies sold and 5 cents for all thereafter.

He said Lustron had made a profit and "that was one of the few projects on which they made money."

Fulbright and Morse had cited McCarthy's 1951 attack on Gen. George C. Marshall as another of their counts against the Wisconsin senator.

McCarthy replied by inserting in the Congressional Record a letter written last June 23 by Harry H. Woodring, former Democratic secretary of war, in which Woodring said that Marshall "would sell out his own grandmother for personal advantage."

In Topeka, Kan., Woodring said he recalled the letter. He added he once "thought very highly of Gen. Marshall . . . but I lost faith in him."

Marshall had no comment.

VOTE WITH MAJORITY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both Ohio's senators, Bricker (R) and Burke (D), yesterday voted for a motion to refer to a special committee the resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) and all amendments thereto, to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis). The motion carried, 75-12.

Truce Reached In Cincinnati Dairy Dispute

Union Drivers To Go Back to Posts During Contract Negotiations

CINCINNATI (AP) — A truce was declared early today in the dispute between management and union and delivery of milk will be resumed throughout the greater Cincinnati area beginning tomorrow.

A strike of 2,200 AFL drivers and dairy plant workers against 44 dairies, called last Saturday midnight, had been only partially in effect.

20-Hour Session

Negotiations, with federal mediator James A. Mackraz sitting in, continued for 20 hours before agreement was reached at 7 a. m. today to call a truce and resume operations.

Milk deliveries to both stores and houses, however, could not be made today because the supplies had been diverted to other markets.

Picketing at three dairies ended immediately after the truce was reached, a spokesman for the Milk and Ice Cream Drivers and Dairy Employes' Union said.

The union reportedly made a new proposal to the Milk Dealers Assn. last night and a truce finally was decided on pending a study of it.

The union originally asked a hike in their weekly guarantee for drivers from $81.45 to $88.45 and a readjustment in commissions. Leonard Slutz, attorney for the milk dealers, said the commission hikes would average $10 a week and in some cases reach $17.

Reports Progress

Mediator Mackraz said in a statement the truce was reached "in the public interest" after considerable progress was made this morning in contract negotiations.

The negotiators then recessed for 12 hours.

The three dairies where pickets were set up yesterday are in Cincinnati, Covington, Ky., and Hamilton, Ohio.

Housewives purchased much of the available supply of milk at store yesterday. One large chain, the Kroger Co., and seven other dairies were expected to be able to make deliveries during the strike. Kroger has a separate contract with the union.

Hospitals, orphanages and other institutions also were assured, a dairy spokesman said, of milk supplies.

Villagers Protest Proposed Location Of Jet Plane Base

CLEVELAND (AP)—Some 100 residents of Aurora village pledged $5,000 last night to fight the establishment of a proposed armed forces reserve jet plane base in Portage County.

Location of the field, planned to serve Air Force and Navy reservists in the Akron-Cleveland area, is not definite, though a decision from Washington is expected some time next month.

Aurora Mayor Mayne Carter and Township Trustee John I. Eldridge head the fund-raising committee, whose stated purpose is to "carry the story of what an airport would mean" to the small suburb and nearby communities of Hudson, Mantua, Twinsburg, Stow and Chagrin Falls, all said likely to be affected by the air traffic.

RAIN FORESTS

WASHINGTON (INS)—A vast rain-forest encircles the earth between the tropics, says the National Geographic Society. It extends across northern South America, Central Africa, parts of India and the Malay peninsula, the East Indies, and nothern Australia. Half the continent of South America is covered by this forest belt.

Youth, 18, Bound to Jury

An 18-year-old Marion youth, one of two teen-agers caught by police breaking into the Rankin Oldsmobile Garage over the weekend, was bound over to the Marion County Grand Jury Monday.

He pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering. Bail was set at $2,000. He is now in the county jail, having been unable to post the bond. The other youth will appear in Juvenile Court.

TAX TAKE DECLINE

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy yesterday reported an 11.1 per cent drop in cigaret taxes collected in the state for July this year compared with revenues of a year ago. The two-cent-a-pack tax totaled $1,915,029 in July, 1953. If the decrease continues, Tracy estimates a $2,500,000 drop in revenue for the current fiscal year.

Goodrich Golfers Move Into Second In Industrial Loop

B. F. Goodrich moved into the runner-up spot in the Marion Industrial Golf League in Monday's action to press league leading American Legion Post 162.

Both squads posted 7-1 victories, the Legion Post over Gulf Refining and Goodrich over Tecumseh. The action left the Legion Post at the top of the heap with 25½ points and Goodrich second with 23.

Marion Engineer Depot No. 1 slipped to third with 21 points when it split 4-4 with Erie Railroad. In other action, Marion Industries downed Marion Power Shovel 5-3 and Marion Engineer Depot No. 2 and Marion Engineer Depot No. 3 split 4-4.

Thus Marion Industries holds down fourth spot with 19 points. Next come Marion Engineer Depot No. 2, 16½; Tecumseh, 12; Marion Engineer Depot No. 3, 11½; Erie Railroad, 11; Gulf Refining, 10½; and Marion Power Shovel, 10.

Low net scores were 30's by P. Anderson, G. Roberts, D. Tuttle and D. Roecker.

It hasn't come out just what kind of offer Winston Churchill made us, but it could have been a deal under which the British empire would resign its exclusive rights to the secret of how to run the mile under 4 minutes.

Ford, Mossi Will Hurl Opener in Showdown Series

Lopez Shuns Predictions On Yank, Tribe Flag Race

CLEVELAND (AP) — Even with a club like the pennant-pushing Cleveland Indians, Manager Al Lopez doesn't climb too far out on a limb when it comes to discussing those New York Yankees.

The cautious senor, who has never claimed to own a crystal ball, says:

"The Yanks are a good ball club. They've won a lot of ball games and they seem to be just as good as in previous years."

Some kind of showdown comes to pass tonight, when the Yanks and Indians open a three game series in Cleveland Stadium.

But neither Lopez nor Yankee Manager Casey Stengel have given any indication that the series will greatly affect the American league pennant race.

"We can't figure too far ahead," Lopez says. "We just try to win one ball game at a time."

The Indians' manager summed up this way:

"Last year we broke even with the Yanks 11-11. So far this year, it's 7-7. So we must be pretty close."

The Tribe's lead over the Yankees is 2½ games. Even if the New Yorkers sweep the series, the Indians would lead by a slim percentage margin—.6827 to .6822. The Clevelanders enter the series with a 71-30 season record or a percentage of .703 while the Yanks have 74-34, or a .673 mark.

The Yanks climbed past the Chicago White Sox into second place July 2 and have closely trailed the pace-setting Indians ever since.

Since July 2, Cleveland has won 21 of 29 games, while the New Yorkers won 23 of 29.

Pair of Young Golfers Among Tam Favorites

CHICAGO (AP)—A youngster never has won a Tam O'Shanter golf title, but at least two of them are conceded good chances to make the big haul this time.

A favored pair to tread on the toes of such older and tournament-wise fellows as Sam Snead, Lloyd Mangrum and the likes are Gene Littler and Peter Thomson.

They are among 76 main-line pros exempted by promoter George S. May from qualifying rounds today and tomorrow. About 200 lesser lights will shoot for 60 vacancies in the field of 136 men pros teeing off Thursday in the All-American Tournament.

The All-American first prize is $3,420, a mere drop in the bucket compared to the winning jackpot for the "world championship" section at Tam next week.

The "world" champion will pocket $50,000 in cash and a $50,000 exhibition contract from May.

In all, May's prize list for the entire meet, running for 10 days, is $205,000—the greatest tournament payoff in sports history.

In May's first tourney, in 1941, Byron Nelson won at the age of 29. And that age stands as the lowest for a winner.

Experts agree that Littler, 24 two weeks ago, and Australia's Peter Thomson, 23, British Open champion who heads a field of some 40 overseas entries, could go all the way.

Littler won the 1953 national amateur crown. In January he defeated the nation's top pros to take the San Diego Open. In the last six months, after turning pro, he has played in eight tournaments, finishing in the money in each.

Worst Batting Slump of Year Plagues Reds

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds, losers in six of their last seven outings, are in the midst of their worst batting slump of the season.

Gus Bell, one of the top hitters in the National League all season, has had only three hits in his last seven games. And his lack of power has been catching.

"Bell's a better hitter than that," said Manager Birdie Tebbetts. "He's in a slump that grips individuals, and even entire teams, somewhere along the line. But he'll come out of it."

The centerfielder's average has dropped from .342 to .319 in the last seven games.

Ted Kluszewski, who usually follows Bell in the lineup, has had some hitting success, with nine hits in his last 27 at bats, but those safeties have produced a meager net of one run. That was on his 29th homer during the four-game series with the New York Giants.

Tebbetts has tried to shake off the hitting blues with the use of Dayton's Bob Borkowski in the lineup. And while Bob has lifted his average above .300 for the first time, the team hasn't been able to produce the necessary runs.

The Reds have played .500 ball in Connie Mack stadium so far this season. Tebbetts selected Bud Podbielan, the righthander with a 6-5 record, for the mound chores tonight.

Tebbetts flew into Cincinnati yesterday to visit his wife, Mary, and their new daughter. They named her Patricia. Their other children are Susan, 3, and Elizabeth, 1.

Marciano, Charles To Sign Contracts For Fight Rematch

NEW YORK (AP)—Now it's definite. Rocky Marciano and Ezzard Charles will meet again Sept. 15 at Yankee Stadium. They sign the official contracts today with the champ getting 40 per cent and Charles 20 per cent.

Television plans for the rematch of their June 17 brawl are not set but it almost certainly will be a theater-TV job again.

Marciano already has started training at Grossinger, N.Y., the cut over his left eye completely healed. Charles will start work Aug. 15 at Monticello, N.Y., 11 miles from Rocky's camp. In the meantime he will do light training at his Cincinnati gym.

Marciano won a unanimous decision in June but failed to drop the ex-champ in 15 rounds. Charles was a badly beaten fighter at the final bell. He will be the first former champion to get a third chance at winning back his title.

Noren, Snider Top Leagues in Batting

NEW YORK (AP)—Irv Noren of the New York Yankees should lengthen his already comfortable American League batting lead tonight if he hits Cleveland pitching the way he did when the clubs met in their last three-game set.

The lefthanded-hitting outfielder is batting .350, just 20 points higher than runnerup Minnie Minoso of Chicago. Irv slumped slightly in games last week, dropping eight points while Minoso gained six.

Noren collected nine hits in 13 trips in the July 23-25 series against the Indians.

In the National League, Duke Snider of Brooklyn dropped five points to .358, but Don Mueller of the New York Giants, his closest competitor, lost one to .343. Snider had eight hits in 28 trips last week and Mueller had 9-for-28.

Bobby Avila of Cleveland is third in the American League with a .320 average as a result of one-point increase.

Wally Moon of the St. Louis Cardinals follows Snider and Mueller in the National League race with .339.

Indianapolis Clips Blues in AA Action

By The Associated Press

The Indianapolis Indians continued their American Association rampage last night by beating the Kansas City Blues, 8-3, with a five-run outburst in the seventh inning.

In the Association's only other game, Minneapolis scored an unearned run in the 11th inning to beat St. Paul, 7-6. This came about when Don Lund was safe on Jim Baxes' error, advanced on a wild pitch by Ronnie Lee and scored on Frank Baldwin's single.

Rain caused postponement of the Columbus-Louisville game while Toledo and Charleston were not scheduled.

DANNY O'CONNELL, Milwaukee Braves second baseman, seems to be sitting this one out, but actually he's just fired to first base to complete twin killing against Brooklyn in first inning of game at Ebbets Field in Brooklyn. Danny caught a fly by Dodgers' Peewee Reese. Junior Gilliam, Dodgers' second baseman, on first and running on a hit and run play, couldn't get back to first in time.

Yesterday's STARS

BATTING — Roy Sievers, Washington Senators smashed a pair of home runs and batted in five runs to lead the Senators to an 11-6 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

PITCHING—Pete Wojey, Brooklyn Dodgers, retired three batters in succession without a run being scored after Hank Aaron's leadoff triple in 13th inning against Milwaukee Braves and collected his first major league victory, 2-1, when Dodgers scored in the last half of the inning.

Man Sues Club, Protests Golf Ball Bombardment

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Paper box manufacturer Edward C. Myers sued the Hillcrest Country club, near his home, for $8,000 yesterday. Said he has to send his children, aged 4 and 2, to nursery school daytimes and can't use his back yard. He alleged it's under constant daylight bombardment by golf balls.

Antonelli Eyes Sweep of NL's Mound Honors

NEW YORK (AP)—Lefty Johnny Antonelli, Milwaukee's gift to the New York Giants, is headed for pitching's triple crown — lowest earned run average, most victories and highest winning percentage—as he sets the National League pace today in all three departments.

Antonelli, acquired from the Braves in a trade last winter, has yielded only 45 earned runs in 182 innings for an earned run mark of 2.23, figures compiled by The Associated Press reveal.

The 24-year-old southpaw has won 16 games—most in the majors—and dropped only two for a winning percentage of .889. He has 11 straight victories and has not been beaten since May 21 when the Philadelphia Phillies turned the trick 8-1.

Ned Garver of Detroit is the American League's leader in earned runs with a 2.35 average. He has given up only 42 untainted runs in 161 frames while recording eight triumphs and seven defeats.

6 Little Indians On Star Team In Association

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Fireballing lefthander Herb Score of Indianapolis topped all nominees in balloting for the 1954 American Association all-star team with 34,725 votes.

Final tabulations left the Indians in a dominating position on the "super squad" with six members of manager Kerby Farrell's team for the Aug. 9 game, to be played at Indianapolis. Results of the balloting were announced today by A.A. headquarters.

Indianapolis players, even though in the No. 1 position, will not play in the Aug. 9 game at Victory Field as members of Manager George Selkirk's All-Stars. They will provide the opposition, having earned the honor by virtue of holding first place in the league standings Aug. 1.

Vote totals for players in the balloting follow:

Pitchers: Score, Indianapolis, 34,725; Delock, Louisville, 28,411; Darnell, St. Paul, 26,291; Browning, St. Paul, 25,833; Jones, Indianapolis, 24,411; Kucab, Kansas City, 20,405; Thiel, Toledo, 17,844, and Sleater, Charleston, 16,770.

Catchers: Foiles, Indianapolis, 26,927; Smith, Columbus, 26,311; Daley, Louisville, 24,877, and Triandos, Kansas City, 22,788.

Infielders: Mozzali, Columbus, 25,118; Malmberg, Indianapolis, 23,465; Segrist, Kansas City, 33,198; Klaus, Minneapolis, 31,855; Friend, Indianapolis, 27,465; Crowe Toledo, 24,436; Neal, St. Paul, 21,877; and Stephenson, Columbus, 20,466.

Outfielders Keough, Louisville, 32,877; Hamric, St. Paul, 31,944; Colavito, Indianapolis, 30,417; Hutson, St. Paul, 27,811; and Bob Broome, Louisville, 25,654.

PRACTICE HELD

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio —Short practice sessions hampered by rain were held here yesterday as about 50 Ohio high school football players warmed up for the annual North-South football game Aug. 13. Northern Coach Jimmy Robinson of Canton's Lehman high school and Bill Kidd of New Philadelphia, the South's mentor, both promised "wide open football" in this year's contest.

3 Games Seen Influencing Stengel's Managing Career

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Casey Stengel has said if his New York Yankees don't win the pennant this year he ought to get fired.

The high-flying Cleveland Indians can do something about that tonight when they open a "crucial" three-game series with the defending world champions. A sweep of the vital set by the Indians not only would set the Yankees back in their worst position since 1948 but would, in all likelihood, get Stengel out of their hair.

Nobody actually believes Stengel will be dismissed if the Indians dethrone the Yankees. It is quite possible, however, that the 64-year-old manager might call it a career. He has said on more than one occasion that he will retire when the Yankee pennant string comes to an end.

Although only 2½ games behind the Indians, the Yanks are four games behind in the important lost column.

"Those four behind in the lost column is what really hurts," Stengel said last night as his team was preparing to entrain for Cleveland. "We've got to cut that down while we got the chance. We may not have many chances later. The lost column is where it counts the most at this stage of the race."

Southpaw Whitey Ford (10-6) was Stengel's choice tonight to oppose the Indians, who will counter with rookie left-hander Don Mossi (4-1).

Both Cleveland and New York were idle yesterday as the major league activities were limited to only three games, one in the National League and two in the American.

In the National, it took the Brooklyn Dodgers 13 innings and 3 hours and 45 minutes to eke out a 2-1 victory over the Milwaukee Braves. The winning run, produced by Billy Cox's sacrifice fly, resulted in the following:

1. It snapped the Braves' winning streak at 10 straight.
2. It ended the Dodgers' losing streak at four straight.
3. It cut the Dodgers' deficit to five games behind the league-leading New York Giants.
4. It shoved the third-place Braves 10 lengths behind first and five behind second.

In the American League, Washington moved to within half a game of Detroit by trouncing the fourth-place Tigers 11-6. Baltimore left Philadelphia all alone in the cellar, vanquishing the Athletics 10-2 as Bob Turley completed his first game since July 3.

Until they broke through in the last half of the 13th it was a frustrating afternoon for the Dodgers. Right-hander Billy Loes was sailing along on a 1-0 lead from the second inning and apparently had a shutout when he retired the first two Braves to face him in the ninth. Then consecutive singles by Andy Pafko, Johnny Logan and Del Crandall, the last hit coming off reliever Jim Hughes, tied the score.

From the ninth until the 13th, the Brooks blew numerous chances to score, raising their men-on-base total to 20, which tied a league record for a 13-inning game. With one out in the 13th, however, Duke Snider singled off loser Dave Jolly and went to third on a single by Gil Hodges. After Sandy Amoros was given an intentional base on balls, Cox came through with a long fly to left that scored Snider.

Pete Wojey, third Dodger pitcher, was credited with his first major league victory.

Roy Sievers rapped two home runs and drove in five runs as Dean Stone turned back the Tigers for the fourth straight time this season.

Baltimore took advantage of seven bases on balls by rookie John Gray and added 10 hits of its own to break its eighth-place deadlock with Philadelphia. The Orioles paced by Eddie Waitkus' three hits, scored three runs in the first inning and knocked Gray out of the box with five more in the fifth.

Local Youngsters To Face Prospect In Track Contest

Children at the Marion playground will meet youngsters from the Prospect playground Wednesday at Prospect in a track and field meet.

The Marion youths warmed up for the meet with the first annual Marion Playground meet recently at Lincoln Park. Awards went to the first place and second place winners. The winner and runner-up of each event will represent Marion in the meet at Prospect tomorrow.

Big winners at the meet last week were Bill O'Keeffe, Bob Coffey, Truman Truax, Bill Beckel, Pat Taylor, Ralph Boggess, and Arnold Caldwell.

A total of 685 children took part in last week's activities at Lincoln Park. The arts and crafts program again proved one of the most popular activities at the park with an average of 37 children taking part each day under the direction of Miss Cora Jane Lehner.

There was no tennis intruction last week at Harding due to repair work being done but instruction was scheduled today and Thursday morning from 9 to 12.

Last week, the older boys were beaten 17-11 by the Eagles softball team and the younger boys softball team defeated the Central Christian Church boys in a double-header, 2-1 and 6-5.

Isaly Outslugs Vance in First Series Contest

Isaly trimmed Vance, 10-6, in their Little League World Series opener last night at Robert Scott Field.

Four runs in the seventh without benefit of a base hit accounted for the win. Vance, however, protested the tilt in the sixth frame. The teams continue the playoffs tonight at Robert Scott Field.

Gene Dulin and Phillip Powers shared pitching duties for the winning American League club. Dulin, the starter, held Vance, National League pennant winner, to seven hits and the entire six runs. Powers set down Vance in the final frame although walking two.

The pair of hurlers struck out 13 Vance batters, Dulin fanning 10 of them. The Isaly hurlers walked five.

Larry Saunders started on the hill for the losers and was relieved by Stan Larkin in the seventh. The hurlers were tagged for 11 hits. All the Isaly hits came off Saunders. With Larkin pitching in the seventh, Isaly pushed across its winning margin on a pair of walks, three fielders choices, and three errors.

The Vance hurlers registered four strikeouts, Saunders getting those. A total of five walks were given up by Saunders and Larkin.

Isaly scored thrice on four hits in the second but then was held at bay until the final three frames. Two runs were scored in the fifth on four singles, one on three hits in the sixth and four in the seventh.

Vance took an early lead with a run on three hits in the opening inning and four runs in the following frame on two hits but then was held scoreless until the sixth. One run was scored in that frame with the aid of two hits.

Marvin Cook, Larry Ishida and Gene Tyo all banged out two hits for the winners with Cook and Ishida netting a double apiece. Powers, Kelley, John Norris, Randy Leedom and Dulin contributed a hit apiece to the Isaly attack.

Phil Reid had two hits including a double to pace the Vance hitting attack. Ken Coffae, David Howison, Larkin, Peter Wolfinger and Saunders — whose hit was a two-bagger — all added a hit apiece.

Marion, Carey Men Schedule Big Game Hunt in East Africa

CAREY — Plans for a big game hunting expedition in Africa which have been in the making for nearly two years have been completed by Dr. I. G. McDaniel of Carey and Marion Landes of Marion, his hunting companion on a trip to Alaska in 1952.

They will leave Carey Aug. 8 for New York City, where on the following day they will board a plane for London. A month's journey through Europe and the Holy Land is also scheduled.

They will spend the month of September hunting in the world's richest game center, which is located three degrees below the equator at the foot of Mount Kilimanjaro in British East Africa. They will spend from Oct. 2 through 4 in Madrid, Spain. They are scheduled to arrive back in New York City Oct. 6.

Championship Tilts Set For Lincoln Park Field

Championship games in the City Teen and Pony Leagues will be held Saturday, Aug. 7, at Lincoln Park.

Three-Year-Old Trotting Crown Up for Decision

GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP)—Dame Lady Luck has had a lot to say about many Hambletonians and the old girl is certain to be present when 16 of the nation's fastest 3-year-old trotters battle it out tomorrow in the $106,830 sulky derby.

Never since the race was inaugurated in 1926 have there been such a classy group of contenders, with at least half a dozen horses given a chance in the pre-race calculations. These are Grade A No. 1 trotters, capable of threatening the Hambletonian record of two minutes flat set in 1947 by Hoot Mon.

Drivers and trainers were generally agreed that racing luck will count when the horses get away in the first one mile heat at 2 p.m. (EST). Heats will follow every hour until one horse has won two dashes.

Nobody will come right out with a confident claim of victory, but the odds makers are making Stenographer, a fleet bay filly owned b Max Hempt, Camp Hill, Pa., construction man, the favorite. The daughter of Bill Gallon, 1941 Hambletonian winner has won eight of her last nine races and she drew the favorable No. 2 post position.

Stenographer will be driven by Del Miller, who steered Lusty Song to victory in the 1950 Hambletonian. Coupled with Stenographer as the Miller table entry is Harlan, a son of Bill Gallon. The entry is listed at 5-2.

Seven Races Scheduled For Richwood Speedway

A seven-race program will be held tonight at the Richwood Speedway. In addition to a 25-lap feature event, a winners' handicap, two consolation dashes and three heat races are slated.

The Speedway is located at the Richwood Fairgrounds and the first race will get under way at 8:30.

Marion Teams Split in Galion Softball Action

Marion teams broke even in district tournament softball play at Galion last night.

Erie No. 1 was edged, 1-0, by Sons of Herman of Mansfield while Carl's Auto Parts won by identical score over Junior Order of Bucyrus.

Sonny Taylor, Carl's hurler, pitched and batted his team to victory. Taylor allowed the opposition only one hit and tripled, scoring the lone run later on Chuck Wynn's hit. The winners got five hits.

Cochran Motors of Mount Vernon trimmed Rusk Brothers of Mansfield 12-5 in the other tourney game last night.

Tonight's schedule calls for Crestline Eagles to battle North Electric of Galion in the opener at 6:30 p.m., Mac's Trading Post of Marion to tangle with Faultless Rubber of Ashland at 7:45 p.m., and Steiner Implement of Upper Sandusky to meet Sanitary Pottery of Perrysville at 9 p.m.

DELAWARE BOYS PLAY

Two Delaware boys played opening round matches in the Northern Ohio Junior Open Tennis Championships yesterday at Lakeside. Dick Hubbard defeated Jim Bundy of Washington, D.C., 6-0, 6-1, while Bill Graham lost to Ron Meyers of Sandusky, 3-6, 9-7, 3-6.

Eight Countries Look at Each Other

PARIS

When eight countries — England, France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Denmark, Holland, Belgium — were linked together in a television network for a month in June, it was viewed by the Europeans as a great technical triumph. To Americans, accustomed as we are to jumping from New York to Los Angeles in a matter of moments, it was a rather different sort of triumph — a linkage of a babble of tongues and more particularly a babble of temperament.

J. CROSBY

How did the Romans view the British? How did the French view the Swiss offerings? UNESCO is now conducting a survey to find out about these things, but some things are abundantly clear. As one French official, put it carefully: "We cannot, of course, say anything about our allies in this great enterprise. But we have learned that there is no international language in pictures. Each nation sees the television picture in its own terms. Some nations are interested in the small human detail, others in the more official picture."

—:—

HE DID NOT SAY which nation was interested in the small human detail as opposed to those in the official picture. But it's interesting to note that one French show broadcast to all eight countries concerned a new visitor to Paris — his first impression of the restaurants, the shops, the streets, the girls. And from Britain came a show of Queen Elizabeth reviewing detachments of the Royal Navy in London.

Every nation tried to put forth its best foot and in so doing revealed a little bit of its own temperament, its own prejudices, its own self. The Germans, for example, broadcast some sort of youth encampment where the German youths were imbibing fresh air and emitting German songs — as they seem to have been doing for some centuries now (it was pretty dull, too), the Swiss, who have always been exquisitely noncommittal and expertly non-partisan, broadcast a flower show, than which there is nothing more noncommital or non-partisan.

AND YET EACH of these things —ordinary in itself — provided an extraordinary glimpse from one country to another. Declared "Le Monde" in Paris of a shot of Rome: "We will remember for a long time the astonishing panorama of the city on its seven hills." And a French broadcasting official said to me, with what seemed like inordinate glee: "For the first time, people in eight countries could set their watches by the clock at St. Peter's in Rome."

As a unifying force in Europe, television is still just a dream because so few people have sets—(12,000,000 people were estimated to have seen Eurovision but that figure seems widely optimistic) — but the first experiment in it has been a howling success.

To Americans, the programs offered would seem impossibly dull. A stroll down the Rhine at Bad Godesburg; an inspection of the pictures at the Vatican; a fete for the children of displaced persons in Holland: a promenade in London at night; the illumination at Versailles.

BUT EUROPEANS are interested in much different things than we are. They like to travel, and right now many of them can't afford it. These little glimpses of not-so-faraway places give them a vicarious satisfaction. In addition, they have a deep interest in one another's culture. (One of the complaints against Eurovision was that there wasn't enough culture. One Frenchman has assured me that Eurovision — if it comes to stay — will be far more a cultural medium than a medium of entertainment.

Two things that were conspicuously absent on Eurovision's first try — entertainment (in the sense of singing, dancing, acting, comedy) and controversy (a discussion of the EDC or Indochina or such like).

The first was not intentional. A variety show was to be broadcast from England as well as various entertainments from other countries. At the last minute, the entertainers banded together in a union from eight countries and said "no." Even this action, negative as it is, shows how Eurovision drives separate nationalities together. The entertainers had never before got together like this.

AS FOR CONTROVERSIAL subjects — well, all eight television systems are government-operated and no one was taking any chances at this early stage of the game of exciting the displeasure of his government. But the French seem sure that controversy and debate will some day be on Eurovision —a German, let's say, arguing with a Frenchman about the rearmament of Western Germany—and that will be a great day, indeed.

"Good television can only exist on a large scale," a Frenchman told me. "European countries are too little to have good television of their own. We need each other. A common European spirit needs television. It can best help to bring people together."

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Aircrafts were strong in an otherwise irregular stock market today.

Trading began fast and continued at a snappy pace into the afternoon. Aircrafts were sparked by United, which raised its dividend from 75 cents to one dollar late yesterday and Boeing, which declared a 50 cent extra dividend. Both were up more than two points.

Steels started with an upward thrust, continuing yesterday's movement, but soon turned mixed. Bethlehem and Youngstown Sheet, reported ready to merge, were active and irregular. Railroads were fairly steady.

Motors drifted lower as General Motors declared its regular dividend. GM's excellent earnings statement apparently led some investors to expect something extra and GM slipped about a point.

Radio - television and mail-order securities generally improved while distillers and utilities tended to ease. Oils, chemicals and rubber companies were narrowly mixed.

Hilton hotels announced the purchase of controlling interest in the Hotels Statler Co., sending the Hilton stock up about a point.

Church Honors Oldest Members at Special Rites

A large group of older members was honored at a special worship service Sunday morning at Calvary EUB Church. Shown here on the church steps with the pastor, Rev. C. R. Wendell, are those of the congregation who have reached the age of 70 and more. They were seated together in a reserved section of the sanctuary, and each one was presented with a rose as a token of recognition. John Goff sang a solo and Rev. Wendell spoke on "Growing Old Gracefully." Arrangements for the service and providing of transportation for the group was in charge of the church ushers headed by J. W. Baker. Oldest member present is more than 85. It is intended that the special service for the "golden agers" will become an annual event.

Postal Officials Launch Drive To Cut Wastes

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Post Office Department philatelic agency has indicated that it is taking steps to comply with President Eisenhower's request for more efficient postal service at less cost to the taxpayers.

Elimination of an invoice form used by the agency in filling stamp orders sent in by collectors has speeded up the service with a considerable saving in time and money.

Discontinuance of use of the form saves approximately 40 hours of clerical time a day. According to postal authorities, this will result in savings of about $20,000 a year.

The invoice form was discontinued on Jan. 18. At that time 6,467 orders were on hand in the agency. By late February the backlog had been taken care of. Orders previously requiring weeks to fill are now being handled hours after their receipt.

The faster service has been accomplished despite a substantial increase in sales. For the first four months of this year sales were up to $694,000, or a 13 per cent hike over the same period of 1953.

U.S. Collectors Search For Rare Asian Flowers

SYDNEY (UP)—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peer of Los Angeles would like to go into Indochina to seek the only known yellow camellia in the world.

"It was last reported 40 years ago," Mrs. Peer said, adding that it was seen in what is now the battle area of Indochina.

"All camellias today are red or white, with variations of those two colors. Think of the wonderful tones you could make by hybridizing a yellow camellia."

The couple also plan to go to Japan, where a perfumed variety is rumored to grow on a southern island.

Death Claims Veteran Ohio Newspaperman

John W. Fisher, 80, Served in Nearly Every Position in Business

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John W. Fisher, one of Ohio's best-known newspapermen, died at his Columbus home early today.

Fisher, 80, began his career as a newspaper carrier at the age of 12. At the time of his death he had been a member of the Dayton Daily News' Columbus bureau more than 30 years. In the years between, he had been a printer's devil, an editor and a publisher.

Served as Mayor

His only break from the newspaper business in that time was the three terms he spent as city clerk and one term as mayor of Delphos.

After a stint as paper carrier, the Allen County farmboy was given a job in the printshop of the Lima News. At 16, he became Delphos correspondent and later city editor of that paper.

He edited the Wapakoneta Daily News, the St. Marys Independent and the Lima Daily Herald.

For a while, he turned publisher, operating his own paper in Manitou Springs, Colo., before the turn of the century. At one time he also owned a semi-weekly in Ohio.

Most of his career was spent covering politics and government. He reported activities of the administrations of half a dozen Ohio governors—from Vic Donahey to Frank J. Lausche—and every General Assembly since 1919.

Covered Conventions

On the national scene, he covered party conventions in Cleveland, New York, San Francisco, Philadelphia and Chicago.

Fisher's dignified approach to political reporting brought this comment from Gov. Lausche in 1950:

"He is a typical representative of the newspaperman who commands great respect in the community in which he lives. Quietly and without pretense he attends news conferences. He poses searching questions but never with the specific purpose of creating embarrassment. It brings to me a glow of warmth to understand the high esteem and respect in which he is held in the state capital, where, because of his years of service he is known best."

Fisher had a taste of political life, himself, becoming mayor of Delphos at the age of 32. He was born near that city, at Columbus Grove.

He and his wife, Mary, celebrated their 58th anniversary last May 16. Other survivors include three daughters, Eula and Vera Fisher of Columbus, and Mrs. M.C. Veit of Findlay, and two sons, Paul G. Fisher of Columbus and Col. Earl J. Fisher of Fort Hayes.

3 KILLED IN COLLISION

MONROE, Mich. (AP) — Truck driver Robert Dawson, 31, of Navarre, Ohio, escaped with minor injuries yesterday when his truck and a car were involved in a head-on collision near here. Three Detroit area men were killed in the crash.

FILE ANIMAL CLAIMS

MOUNT GILEAD—Two animal claims were reported during the past week by Morrow County Dog Warden Floyd Sterritt. Claims totaled $34. Mrs. Fred Crawford of North Bloomfield Township filed a claim for $19 for 38 chickens killed and Lowell Peters of Congress Township filed a claim for two goats killed.

Marlene Dietrich announces she is 48 years old, and all the 50-year-old women who remember getting in at the kiddie rate to see her in "The Blue Angel" are doing some fast refiguring.

Lake Central's Plea for New Route Rejected

Charleston-Detroit Line Ruled Out by Examiner for CAB

A Civil Aeronautics Board examiner yesterday denied the application of Lake Central Airlines for a route between Charleston and Detroit via Columbus, Lima and Toledo, The Associated Press reported from Washington.

William J. Madden, the examiner, said Lake Central would need an additional $300,000 yearly in mail subsidy support for the proposed route.

Decision Final

His decision will be final unless exceptions are filed within 10 days of the date of his recommendation.

He suggested Eastern Air Lines be authorized to operate beyond Charlotte, N. C., to Detroit via Columbus and Toledo and Piedmont Aviation be extended beyond Charleston to Columbus via Parkersburg, W. Va., and Marietta, Ohio.

Eastern had asked for an extension of its route beyond Charleston to Detroit, via Columbus and Toledo, as an alternate to the Charleton-Detroit route it now operates by way of Akron and Cleveland.

Madden said if Eastern would overfly Charleston it would reduce Piedmont's competition and thus prevent a likely $80,000 a year increase in Piedmont's need for mail pay.

For this reason, Madden said Eastern's route should be extended northward from Charlotte instead of from Charleston.

Madden said the only unsatisfactory part of requiring Eastern to bypass Charleston would be the absence of direct one-airline service between Toledo and Charleston. He said other factors outweigh this disadvantage.

Madden said the capital additions required for the proposed services are relatively minor for Piedmont and Eastern, and "somewhat uncertain" for Lake Central.

Can Meet Lima Need

Lake Central, he said, already is in position to meet part of Lima's needs for local service through the special authority it now has for flights between Kokomo, Ind., Lima and Marion, Ohio.

He said it is possible for Lake Central under that authority to route a through-plane service between Lima and Columbus via Marion.

Hearings on some of the proposed changes were held by Madden in Columbus last January.

Five Arrested After Showing Of Lewd Film

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche today reported the arrest in Canton of a ring accused of producing a lewd film shown throughout Ohio.

The governor said Stark County Prosecutor John Rossetti acted in cooperation with state liquor agents who viewed the film at a Canton stag party. The governor said a deputy sheriff who accompanied the agents refused to interfere with the showing.

Gov. Lausche termed it the first instance in which a ring producing and showing lewd films ever had been apprehended in the state.

The governor said Rossetti filed charges against these men:

Thermon W. Smith, photographer; Fletcher Kryder, film developer; Harley Iams, and twins Robert and Donald Sahadi, described as promoters.

Lausche said four of the men were in jail and the fifth was believed to be in Florida.

He said the man and woman who acted in the film also were in custody. He did not name them.

GATE TO "STREETS OF GOLD" MAY BE ABANDONED. Ellis Island in New York harbor, gateway to America's "streets paved with gold" for more than 20,000,000 immigrants since it became an immigration station in 1890, may be abandoned by the Immigration and Naturalization service. Immigration Commissioner Joseph M. Swing recommends such action. The island, a self-contained city, is shown in lower middle of photo. In 1907, the peak year, more than 200,000 immigrants poured through its gates. Now less than 2 per cent are landed there. Swing said transferring the operation would save money.

Crawford Fair Set at Bucyrus For Five Days

BUCYRUS — Gates swung open this morning for the 1954 Crawford County Fair at the fairgrounds here.

Outstanding attractions on the opening day's schedule are a tractor pulling contest this afternoon and the Lucky Lott Auto Thrill show tonight. Eugene Tupps is committee chairman for the tractor pull.

Harness racing will get under way Wednesday afternoon with four races, including a 30 trot, 30 pace, two-year trot and two-year pace. Purse in each event is $600.

Additional harness racing is scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, the first time in the fair's 106-year-old history that there has been night racing.

A pre-fair religious service held at the fairground Sunday night under ponsorship of the Bucyrus Ministerial Association was attended by several hundred persons. Guest speaker was Dr. Floyd Faust, pastor of Broad Street Christian Church in Columbus.

Many tents have been erected on the grounds to handle overflow livestock, industrial and commercial exhibits, James Gebhardt, fair board secretary, reported today.

The fair is scheduled to end Saturday night.

Coronation at Carey Shrine Begins Month of Pilgrimages

CAREY—New crowns of platinum and solid gold studded with precious stones were placed on the images of Our Lady, Consoler of the Afflicted, and the Christ child at the Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation Sunday afternoon, marking the first day of the pilgrimage month at the Carey shrine.

The crowns were proposed several years ago by the Franciscan Fathers stationed at the shrine and a group of men interested in the shrine. Gifts of jewels, gold and contributions from the many persons who visit the shrine throughout the year made the undertaking possible and Father Theodore Eickholtz, OFMConv., rector, commissioned Neumann Brothers of Toledo to fashion the crowns. Each crown requried about 500 hours of the jeweler's time. Both are fashioned of diamonds and other gems set in solid gold and platinum.

During May and August when pilgrimages are held each Sunday, crowds estimated at more than 10,000 visit the shrine. The pilgrims, representing most of the nationalities, attend one of the Masses, go to confession in their native tongue and take part in the colorful candlelight procession on the night of Aug. 14. The Most Rev. George J. Rehring, S. T. D., Bishop of Toledo, will take part in the procession and impart Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament that night. He will also be celebrant of the 8 o'clock Mass on Aug. 15.

During the novena, Aug. 6-15, weekday Masses and evening services will be held Afternoon devotions are held at 2 30 p.m. each Sunday.

The history of the Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation had its beginnings in Luxemburg. The Image of Our Lady of Consolation at Carey is a replica of the famous European statue and was sent to this country by the Bishop of Luxemburg upon request of the late Father Golden On the day of the statue's arrival in Carey, a procession formed. A torrential rainstorm hit the area, it is said, but no rain fell on the procession. The phenomenon impressed the group so strongly that Carey became a place of pilgrimage.

To accommodate the large number of pilgrims, giant pavilions and rest rooms have recently been completed in the spacious park.

Phone Companies Ask for Delay in Service Standards

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two attorneys, representing eight independent telephone companies, yesterday asked the state utilities commission to delay putting scheduled phone standards into effect for six months.

The attorneys, John Brown and John R. Jones, spoke at a public hearing yesterday. It was held to discuss proposed minimum service standards in Ohio.

The commission wants a set of standards to measure phone service of various companies.

Some sections as now written would become effective in two years, others 10 days after filing with the secretary of state.

Brown represented the Lorain and Chillicothe telephone companies. Jones represented the Northern Ohio Telephone Co., Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co., General Telephone Co. of Ohio, and telephone companies at Warren, Elyria and Mansfield.

Brown said there might be a conflict between the standards and the Henderson Act. If the standards are violated, he said, under the Henderson Act, companies can't get permission to sell stock to make improvements.

The Henderson Act provides that when one telephone company fails to provide adequate service, another can take over the territory.

Senate Record

McCarthy Faces Third Investigation in 3 Years

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy and three-alarm fires have one thing in common you don't have much time to get bored with them. McCarthy now heads into the third investigation of him by fellow senators in three years. He's mixed up in the third one before the second one is finished.

This probably sets a record for the Senate. No one there in recent memory has taken up so much of the Senate's time. All three inquiries were forced on McCarthy by fellow senators.

Seems Unquenchable

But McCarthy, unlike a fire, hasn't been put out yet. At this moment no one can predict where the latest investigation will lead or how long it will last. Weeks, possibly months, more likely.

The first investigation of him—it took 18 months and ended Jan. 2, 1952, with a report which made no recommendations—was inspired by former Sen. Benton (D-Conn), who accused McCarthy of various forms of misconduct. The committee which investigated McCarthy investigated Benton too.

This group was made up of two Democrats — Senators Hennings (Mo) and Hayden (Ariz)—and a Republican, Sen. Hendrickson (NJ). While they made no recommendations against McCarthy, they accused him of deliberately trying to thwart their work, saying that six times he refused to testify before them. They criticized Benton too, but not for refusing to answer questions.

When Army officials last spring made charges against McCarthy and his staff, and when the senator responded with countercharges, the members of his own Senate Investigations subcommittee decided to look into the case. The public, televised hearings took weeks. That committee still hasn't made its report.

Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) started McCarthy's latest troubles by demanding the Senate censure him. His accusations were more general than specific and it was decided to create a select committee to look into the various charges which other senators voiced in support of Flanders' move.

It had seemed around Washington a week ago that Flanders proposal would be "tabled," which is a parliamentary device for shutting off debate and calling for an immediate vote. It seemed certain that the Senate would not vote censure, and that if a vote were forced on a motion to table, McCarthy would win Strangely, none of McCarthy's friends tried to force such a vote.

Might Not Testify

Since McCarthy wouldn't testify before Hennings' group, he might do the same in this latest inquiry. The Hennings group didn't try to force him, since he's a senator And the select committee now might not try to force him to answer questions either if he stayed away.

Instead of staying away, he expressed great eagerness to cross-examine the senators who made these latest accusations, against him. The select committee will have to decide whether to let him If McCarthy is permitted to cross-examine, his senatorial accusers no doubt will demand the right to cross-examine him.

That would probably be much rougher than anything McCarthy experienced during the hearings on his row with Army officials. There the government officials and their lawyers never quite forgot he was a senator who should be treated carefully. But when McCarthy tangles with fellow senators, they're all equal.

None of the senators who talked against McCarthy and may testify against him has shown any liking for him.

Before anyone can guess what lies ahead, Vice President Nixon must appoint the three Democrats and three Republicans who will make up the select committee. Then the committee will use up more time deciding on its rules for handling the investigation, whether it needs a staff, who the staff should be, and whether the hearings will be public or behind closed doors.

For a man so free-wheeling as McCarthy, hitherto able to skip nimbly from case to case, calling his own shots, he has been amazingly handcuffed in 1954. The Army hearings took all his time and energy for weeks. The new ones may do the same. Instead of being an issue in the November elections, he may turn out to be a side issue.

President Rhee Has No Illusions

There is only one country that would allow Syngman Rhee, president of the Republic of Korea, to appear before Congress and other audiences and accuse the United States government and the American people of lacking the resolution and courage to come to grips with the Communist conspiracy in Asia.

Rhee has charged that his American friends were so intent on backing away from World War III in Korea that they are backing into it, instead. While this is the view of Gen. Van Fleet and, before he stated it, the view of Gen. MacArthur, it assuredly is not the view of the United States government and presumably is not the view of the majority of the American people.

The government and most citizens are glad they extricated their fighting forces from a war in Korea they were not winning and could not afford to lose. With due respect to President Rhee as a great patriot and a man of the highest integrity, they believe he is wrong when he argues that an all-out war could settle the issue in Asia.

Americans have lost faith in all-out wars as a means of settling issues, particularly when the issues are joined with populations consisting of hundreds of millions of human beings who, knowing nothing of the issues themselves, would only know how to hate an adversary who would be branded an invader.

President Rhee has no illusions. He has seen millions of his countrymen killed because they stood in the path of a ruthless power. Having witnessed wholesale slaughter, oriental style, he is not afraid of it. But he should not be puzzled if his American admirers do not accept his credo that more slaughter would turn Asiatics away from the Kremlin and win them for anti-Communism.

Speed vs. Safety

An argument about speed and automobile safety has broken out between Robert Moses, the public works administrator, and the director of the traffic division of National Safety Council.

Moses resigned as a Safety Council trustee when the director said there was no conclusive proof that speed was the largest single cause of traffic fatalities. Moses had said he knew from first-hand experience that speed is the biggest factor in serious accidents and frequently the sole reason of fatal ones."

This sounds like a quibble over the definition of speed. All of us know from our own experience that speed becomes excessive in relation to driving conditions, not in relation to someone's arbitrary opinion of what constitutes excessive speed.

At dusk on a rainy evening in autumn with leaves on the pavement, 40 miles an hour would be excessive speed. On the same pavment in midday with the sun shining and driving conditions ideal, 40 miles an hour would be slow-poking.

If all automobiles were driven at 50 miles an hour or less, there would be fewer accidents and fewer fatalities. If they were driven at 10 miles an hour or less, there would be no fatalities at all and almost no accidents. But that isn't the idea of having automobiles in the first place.

The solution to the highway safety problem, therefore, is not to attain safety by getting rid of speed, because that solution would be rejected by motorists. The solution is how to attain more speed with less risk. Highways and drivers must be made safer.

Gateway to Freedom

The world's most famous gateway to freedom, Ellis Island, in Upper Bay within sight of the Statue of Liberty and downtown New York is going to be abandoned on grounds of inefficiency. We suppose there will be a ceremony when this happens and someone will have figured out how many immigrants were put ashore on Ellis Island when they came to America.

It would be more important to appraise what the immigrants did for America. Being an immigrant here always has been a matter of relative timing. The first ones arrived hundreds of years ago, and the newest ones arrived this morning. All of us "arrived" sometime.

The phrase "melting pot" has gone out of fashion lately. It even has a bad connotation in careless minds that have grown heedless of the source of America's unprecedented strength —the boundless vitality of its immigrants and their common devotion throughout the years to the freedom they came here to find.

They found it. They used it. They created more wealth with it than all the earth's other people combined. They created enough for themselves and for others. They have had more laughter and less distress than any other body of human beings in the world. The insecurity which is the price of their freedom has bound them together in a brotherhood of sympathy and tolerance that has caused every other nation to look to Americans for aid in times of trouble. And who are these wonderful Americans?

Immigrants from every place in the world. Except for a few hundred thousand American Indians, not an aborigine in the lot! Maybe Ellis Island should be preserved as a national monument.

Cost of Korean War

By David Lawrence

Loss of Ideals Too High Price for Appeasement

They finally announced last week the official casualty list of Americans in Korea—the dead 33,417.

Syngman Rhee was in Washington the same day to express his gratitude for the help the American people gave his country.

That's a lot of American boys—33,417—who gave their lives, and there were also 108,650 wounded, many of whom will be maimed for the rest of their days.

Nobody except Syngman Rhee seemed to have these American boys on his conscience. It is true that he came in a bitter mood. Nearly 2,000,000 of his countrymen —civilians as well as soldiers— have been killed. From the battle zone to calm, peaceful, forgetful Washington, it was, indeed, a realistic if not an inexplicable, contrast.

For while Washington was polite and gracious to the President of the Republic of Korea, it was somewhat annoyed that he brought up the subject of what happens when you start to repel attacks in war, kill and wound 142,067 of your young men, and then fail to finish the war or to do anything which gives the impression that you really care about the sacrifices that have been made.

THIS WEEK Syngman Rhee will pay his respects at Kansas City to former President Truman, who ordered the American Army, Navy and Air Force in June, 1950, to help defend the Republic of Korea. It was a magnificent action and Truman deserves the greatest credit for this step. But then, after a few months, Truman faltered—he listened to the timid voices of the European governments who feared that a war in Asia might endanger the safety of Europe.

Instead of taking the calculated risks of a battle already begun, Truman acceded to the request of the Allies and would not allow pursuit of the Chinese bombers to their bases in Manchuria.

He refused to order a blockade of the coast of China, whose government had intervened in Korea with more than 2,000,000 soldiers, and he failed to let the troops of Chiang Kai-shek, still the recognized head of the Nationalist government of China, go to the mainland of China to fight against the Reds. Then he summarily fired Gen. MacArthur — the commander-in-chief, for daring to advocate such a stern course.

Truman has a lot to answer for in history.

Negotiations for an armistice had been begun under the Truman administration, so President Eisenhower felt it his duty to consummate them, because a commitment had been made to our allies to end the fighting.

The plausible argument was advanced that aggression had been "repelled" and that the Communists had learned a lesson and that a third world war had been averted. Significant warnings against further aggression were then released by Washington in the hope of restraining the Communists from enlarging the war in Indochina.

THE WARNINGS went unheeded and the Indochina war was enlarged, with aid from Red China. The Western countries in due time capitulated to the aggressor.

The 33,417 dead, moreover, are forgotten or ignored in Great Britain. Yet this is more than half the number of persons killed by the bombing of Britain during all of World War II. In spite of the fact that the United Nations has declared the Red Chinese government an "aggressor" the London government and almost the entire Parliament and the press want to accept the aggressor as a "peace-loving" member of the United Nations with a seat in the Security Council.

Admission of Red China, of course, means that the Republic of Korea will be forfeited to the Communists.

Syngman Rhee, who has lived the last four years in an atmosphere of great sacrifice in which the blood of the soldiers of many allied nations has been shed in the cause of human freedom, can't understand what's come over the free world, especially America.

HE HAS STUDIED American history and has read of such patriots as Patrick Henry who said they preferred liberty to death. He had read of how Abraham Lincoln said the Union couldn't survive half slave and half free. Yet he hears of "peaceful co-existence" with the murderers of his countrymen.

It didn't take long for the Korean president last week to be disillusioned — to discover that official Washington is far more interested in finding ways and means of curbing McCarthy's "methods" than it is in restraining the methods of the Communists in Asia even when they have already killed 33,417 American boys, and have tortured tens of thousands of others.

He must have wondered about all this as he read of the debates in Congress where it seems more important to worry about whether some "pinko" may possibly get a tongue-lashing before a congressional committee hereafter than whether 33,417 American boys died in vain in Korea.

THOSE 33,417 American boys had mothers and fathers and maybe sisters and brothers. Perhaps that's still a small number compared to the rest of the population, but there are millions of others who have been drafted to serve in the armed forces and are now in reserve.

Will they be taught that America fights for an ideal — or just begins a fight and then quits when other governments, who send only token forces into the fray, get frightened and call quits?

It is going to be hard to indoctrinate the troops of the future and to convince them that the American Flag stands for the idealism the officers will try to tell them it does.

It is going to be hard to persuade many American parents that the several divisions of our troops now in Europe aren't being jeopardized. All around them today in Europe and Asia are "peace-at-any-price" governments which are unwittingly telling the aggressor that aggression will not be punished.

The 33,417 American dead may not be on anybody's conscience in Europe, but what's much worse it is beginning to look as if they aren't on anybody's conscience in Washington either.

What a way to destroy the morale of our armed forces in a world where aggressors hold sway!

(N. Y. Herald Tribune)

Vesper Service

By TRUMAN TWILL

Of the millions who have read E. B. White's classic essay about the death of a pig, thousands have noted a significant omission. After the pig had died, someone else performed the burial chore—not the essayist, himself.

This ended prematurely what had been a deeply stirring experience because life does not end with death. There is always the anti-climax of burial—the sad business of putting away the mortal remains, heaving a sigh and resuming life where it was so rudely interrupted by the snicker - snee of the scythe that never stops sweeping.

Last night we buried a lamb. The grave was dug in the evening at the edge of the marsh, where the digging would be easy. It is no small thing to dig a hole in ground that has not been rained on for more than a month. But at the edge of the marsh there is muck and sand. An adequate grave can be dug in a quarter of an hour.

The corpse waited patiently on a wheelbarrow. Its ebony hooves were gleaming and its fleece was snow white where the wool had been pushed apart by the handling required to move the remains from the shade of the big poplar by the spring to the denser shade of the undergrowth in the marsh.

There were two of us for the job—one to dig and one to talk. Solitary burying is, like solitary drinking, not a safe practice. Even when the grave is going to be small there should be a helping hand for the meditating, if not for the digging.

A lamb does not know, if that would be any comfort for a lamb. It is comforting for an owner of lambs, who has many occasions to think as he sees them come into the world and go out of it that knowing is the worst part of dying.

There was a lamb last spring that died of convulsions. It was two days old. Its mother had been trying to save it by pushing on its ribs, but neither its mother nor the shepherd could bring back what already had gone—the spark. For days, the mother mourned. She looked anxiously in every corner and her mourning became uncomfortably audible before she finally gave it up. She knew—about the lamb. But she will not know about herself when her spark dies.

These are things to talk about while the shovel cuts through the black marsh muck, down into the place where centuries-old twigs, branches and trunks have decayed and—below that—where there are traces of white sand. The lamb will be in a good secure cubicle for eternity. With a little luck and the right combination of temperature and pressure, he might even turn into a paleontologist's triumph. Thus might fame come to a lamb with no name and no fame that died from causes unknown on a bright blue day in midsummer. Some professor would surmise that the little fellow must have been trapped there at the edge of an ancient marsh by a cataclysm of interminate origin, perhaps a thermonuclear explosion, and died in pretty much the same position as shown in the reconstruction of the event preceding the tragedy.

The job finally was done and the good earth piled up high over the quiet body that had been so frisky and dynamic only a few hours before. The wheelbarrow hearse rumbled away. The gravedigger and his companion looked with satisfaction at their handiwork and made a mental note to remember the spot, in case of necessity.

E. B. White should have buried his pig. He missed the best part of an experience men need to repeat from time to time, because they need to forget some of what it is they think they know.

'Living Dead' Aid Study of Atom Sickness

By John F. Sembower

A 48-year-old woman believed to be the last member of "the society of the living dead" — persons who contracted "atom sickness" 28 years ago painting watch dials in an Ottawa, Ill., factory—died in July at Billings Hospital on the campus of the University of Chicago.

She was one of a group of persons whose fatal disease scientists sutdied in the hope of learning about the illness that has become a large - scale problem since the achievement of man - made atomic fission.

Physicians are keeping close tabs on several other persons who as teen-agers contracted radium poisoning by pointing with their tongues the brushes dipped into radioactive paste. The medical men hope that somehow they escaped the lethal doses which have killed more than 60 former workers at the Ottawa plant and in the better - known New Jersey plant where the danger first was spotted.

Scientists at the government's huge Argonne National Laboratory at Lemont, Ill., who have been pioneering in ways to prevent exposure to dangerous amounts of radioactivity and seeking methods of treatment, have issued a public call for hundreds or possibly thousands of persons who between 1915 and 1930 drank prescriptions of radium chloride, a once popular treatment for high blood pressure and other ailments, to come into the laboratories and take tests to determine whether they unwittingly belong to the dreaded "society."

There still may be time for them to "resign" by taking treatments.

CLARENCE DARROW, the famous criminal lawyer, gave the "society" its macabre name when he volunteered to fight its compensation requests in court.

Latest victim of the watch-deal tragedy was Mrs. Ruth Mary Williams of Ottawa, who had known since 1926 that she was living in the shadow of death but who developed no symptoms until October, 1951.

Her case became a key research project at the cancer clinic at Billings. She was in and out of the hospital for three years, entering it in May for the last time. Up to a year ago she weighed about 100 pounds, but when the poison in her bones really went to work she dwindled to 55 pounds. A leg was amputated a year ago.

Three middle-aged Illinois women—Mrs. Marie Rossifer of Ottawa, Mrs. Pearl Payne of La Salle, and Mrs. Romelda Bierman of Peru — still live in dread, but so far none has succumbed to the fate of the other once carefree young girls who sat along the watch-factory workbenches. "We try not to think about it," Mrs. Rossiter says.

WHY THEY SHOULD have been spared is a riddle the Argonne scientists are working on, because susceptibility to atom sickness appears to vary in different persons.

Dr. Karl Z. Morgan, director of health physics at the AEC's uranium separation plant at Oak Ridge, Tenn., points out that everyone eats and drinks naturally radioactive substances.

When, only 30 years ago, Dr. Sabin A. von Schocky, a Polish pioneer in radioactivity studies, invented the luminous paint used for clock dials virtually nothing was known about atom sickness.

He mixed radium and another radioactive substance, mesothorium, with zinc sulphide to make a virtually permanent fluorescent paint. Not until the brush girls developed anemia and their jaws began to fall apart did he know of its deadly properties.

Dr. Von Schocky then brokenheartedly developed the methods for testing the degree of exposure of the victims. While some tests were being made that showed some of the girls had only two years to live, an associate suggested he take the test himself. It revealed the grim fact that he had only a few months remaining. He used them to put together notable researches in radioactivity.

ARGONNE SCIENTISTS have developed the first antidote for beryllium poisoning, which is like radium poisoning and has afflicted several atomic workers there. AEC standards have been developed which call for no atomic worker being exposed to more than 300 milliroentgens of radiation per week or six and one-half milliroentgens in any one hour. The drug acth also has been found to have therapeutic value in treating atomic victims.

The problem of safely burying radioactive waste, which Walton A. Rodger, associate director of Argonne's chemical engineering division, estimates will total at least three tons daily by the year 2000, has top priority among the preventive measures to be taken against atom sickness as a public health problem.

Radium paint for watches gave a grim preview of the dangers inherent in man - made atomic fission. Now, however, about 40 hazardous substances are generated by atomic - fired furnaces. Some wastes are radioactive only for seconds, but one, technetium 99, can remain radioactive for 200,000 years.

Argonne has developed a "glass sandwich" in which to encase the wastes which are shipped for burial in the Oak Ridge, Tenn., site or sunk in deep water off the Virginia coast.

Father and Son Dialogue

"Popper, I've been studying this Indochina settlement. Is it as one-sided as it looks?"

"Run out and play ball, Junior. You're too young to worry."

"But I just read where Canada, India and Poland were agreed on as a committee of umpires to supervise the truce, see that the commies do as promised and take steps if they do not. It is specified that in any serious disputes the decisions must be unanimous. Doesn't the presence of Poland make it certain there will be no unanimous agreements?"

"My boy, if there have ever been any greater jokers in any truce terms I missed them. Canada could be depended on to uphold the free world ideas, and India might. But Poland would be in the Communist alley at all times. No matter what the other two umps do in any argument, she will have the veto."

"The truce terms provide that as a general rule a majority rule will operate but that there must be a unanimous vote in all important issues that might lead to a resumption of hostilities, Popper. Is there any chance Red China would consider any issue unimportant and unlikely to lead to trouble?"

"From Panmunjom to Geneva I am yet to read of the commies regarding one issue as trivial. Any issue our side ever raised was treated as a superdooper one that could lead to a resumption of hostilities."

"Can you think of any issue that could come before such a commission that wouldn't have Poland in the Moscow-Pieping corner?"

"Not even such an issue as who should pay for the next drink in the cocktail lounge or who was responsible for the stolen hat or overcoat at the previous meeting."

"Popper, let's suppose India, Canada and Poland were handling the shooting down of the British passenger plane, and India and Canada agreed it called for damages and an apology. Wouldn't Poland hold this was an issue that could lead to war and veto the ruling"

"You can tie to that one, sonny. Poland will always rule any dispute likely to lead to war even if it's only an argument with a traffic cop on the way to a peace meeting."

"What happens when the international commission fails to agree on an issue"

"The issue is referred to all the nations that agreed to the truce terms at Geneva."

"What's that mean?"

"That means we're all back on the merry-go-round. Scram. This is bigger than both of us. Scram!"

U.S. Reported Drafting New Note of Protest

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is reported drafting a new demand that the Chinese Communists pay compensation for six Americans killed and wounded by Red fighter planes.

Diplomatic officials said today a vigorous second note — Red China rejected the first one — would be sent to the Peiping regime in the next few days.

The American note will renew a demand that all persons responsible for the attack be punished and that steps be taken to prevent any such future shootings.

Three Americans were killed and three others wounded when Communist planes shot down a British airliner last July 23 south of Red-held Hainan Island. Ten lives were lost in all.

The State Department dismissed as baseless yesterday a protest by the Communist government of Poland, made last Saturday, that American planes had fired on two Polish ships in the area of Hainan Island. A department spokesman said U.S. planes "have not fired on any ship in that area," and that the Polish note would be formally rejected.

Wife Sues, Asks Spouse To Pay Back Earnings

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Florence L. Windisch, in what her lawyer calls a "new approach to the problem of working wives," yesterday filed an amended divorce petition asking her husband to repay the $14,527 she earned as a secretary during their marriage.

She charged her earnings during the marriage "were appropriated by her husband and were used and controlled by him" although she never agreed to such action in writing.

Milton S. Napier, her attorney, said he is proceeding under the Missouri Married Women's Act, which provides a husband may use his wife's earnings only if she has agreed to it in writing.

Man Too Careful, Winds Up in Jail

DETROIT (AP)—Starling Mack, 20, told Traffic Judge George T. Murphy he was trying to stay out of trouble last Saturday when Detroit police arrested him on a city free way.

Mack's drivers license was revoked for 90 days July 21 after a minor accident.

Explaining his arrest, he said:

"I knew if I drove that I might get into trouble and be sent to jail for not having a license. I thought I'd play it safe and go real slow."

He was arrested for going too slow—35 miles an hour in a 55-mile zone on the John Lodge Expressway.

Noting a previous record of seven violations in the last year, Judge Murphy gave him 10 days in jail.

Carrier Yorktown Joins U.S. Fleet in Philippines

SANGLEY POINT, P. I. (AP)—The aircraft carrier Yorktown arrived in Manila Bay today to join the U.S. 1st Fleet, which has been operating in the South China Sea.

Air Force Names Senior Members Of Academy Staff

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has selected two more senior members of the new Air Academy staff. They are Brig. Don Z. Zimmerman, who will be dean of faculty, and Col. Robert M. Stillman, commandant of cadets.

The appointment of Lt. Gen. Hubert R. Harmon to be superintendent of the academy to be located in Colorado Springs, Colo., has been announced previously.

Zimmerman, a native of Eugene, Ore., is a graduate of the University of Oregon and the United States Military Academy. Stillman was born in Greenville, Ohio, and attended Colorado College at Colorado Springs for two years before going on to the military academy.

PERU, Ind. — (UP) — It now is legal to bring cows, horses, hogs and other animals into Peru between the hours of 8 p.m. and 5 a.m.

A curfew on animals within the city limits was one of several musty ordinances repealed by the city council to streamline its laws.

Another ordinance scrapped by the council barred the hitching or tying of any horse, mule or other beast of burden to any tree, electric light, telephone or telegraph pole within any street, alley, lane or public ground.

Peanut Butter and Jelly Draws Fire of Dentists

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — The lunchpail standby, the peanut butter and jelly sandwich, promotes tooth decay, says Dr. Willard C. Fleming, dean of the University of California's College of Dentistry. He told a convention of home management experts that peanut butter acts as "glue" holding the sugared jelly next to the teeth.

"Sugar is not the whole story in tooth decay," he said, "but it is a most important part."

A plain peanut butter sandwich he said, is fine.
